

Exchange of Notes for such a Contracting Party and to substitute another airline for that previously designated.

ARTICLE 4

1. Following receipt of a notice of designation pursuant to Article 3, the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party shall, consistent with its laws, regulations and procedures, grant with a minimum of delay to an airline so designated the appropriate authorizations to operate the agreed services for which the airline has been designated.

2. Upon receipt of such authorizations the airline or airlines may begin at any time to operate the agreed services, partly or in whole, provided that the tariffs established in accordance with the provisions of Article 12 of this Agreement are in force in respect of such services.

ARTICLE 5

1. The aeronautical authorities of each Contracting Party shall have the right to withhold the authorizations referred to in Article 4 with respect to an airline designated by the other Contracting Party, to revoke such authorizations or impose on them conditions, temporarily or permanently:

- (a) in the event of failure by such airline to qualify before the aeronautical authorities of that Contracting Party under the laws and regulations applied by these authorities in conformity with the Convention;
- (b) in the event of failure by such airline to comply with the laws and regulations of that Contracting Party;
- (c) in the event that they are not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of the airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or its nationals; and
- (d) in case the airline otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under this Agreement.

2. Unless immediate action is essential to prevent infringement of the laws and regulations referred to above, the rights enumerated in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be exercised only after consultations with the other Contracting Party. Unless otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties, such consultations shall begin within a period of sixty (60) days from the date the other Contracting Party receives the request.

ARTICLE 6

1. The laws, regulations and procedures of one Contracting Party relating to the admission to or departure from its territory of aircraft engaged in international air navigation or to the operation and navigation of such aircraft shall be complied with by a designated airline of the other Contracting Party upon entrance into, departure from and while within the said territory.

2. The laws and regulations of a Contracting Party respecting entry, clearance, transit, immigration, passports, customs and quarantine shall be complied with by a designated airline of the other Contracting Party and its crews, passengers, mail and cargo upon transit of, admission to, departure from and while within the territory of such a Contracting Party.
