

[From Article 12 (2) of Alternative "A" (West).]

(k) If weapons covered by this Protocol have been used in violation of its provisions, the States parties shall consider measures designed to encourage compliance, including collective measures in conformity with international law, and may, in accordance with the United Nations Charter, refer the issue to the attention of the Security Council.

[From Article 12 (3) of Alternative "A" (West).]

(l) The provisions of the 1949 Geneva Conventions relating to measures for the repression of breaches and grave breaches shall apply to breaches and grave breaches of this Protocol during armed conflict. ~~Each party to a conflict shall take all~~ appropriate measures to prevent and suppress breaches of this Protocol. Any act or omission occurring during armed conflict in violation of this Protocol, if committed wilfully or wantonly and causing death or serious injury to the civilian population shall be treated as a grave breach. A party to the conflict which violates the provisions of this Protocol shall, if the case demands, be liable to pay compensation, and shall be responsible for all acts committed by persons forming part of its armed forces. States parties and parties to a conflict shall require that commanders ensure that members of the armed forces under their command are aware of, and comply with, their obligations under this Protocol.
