

I shall always be very glad, Urquhart, to receive a letter from you. They are always so full of interesting news, while I fear that mine in reply are very much the reverse.

Please remember me kindly to your sister, and with all good wishes to yourself personally and to the regiment, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,