

Without pretending to enter fully into all the provisions which may be required in matters of detail or of a technical nature, the following will shew the leading enactments which ought in my opinion to form the substance of an Act by the Imperial Parliament for the Union of the British North American Provinces.

HENRY SHERWOOD.

Toronto, March 6, 1851.