Bathurst and Wilson Land Three Stores on Dundas Street Brought Over a Thousand a Foot.

Bathurst Centre, a subdivision com-prising 140 acres on the southeast cor-ner of Bathurst street and Wilson avenue, and running east practically to Yonge street, has been sold for $147,-000, or at $1050 an acre. Outside of these facts the Bathurst Centre Real-ty Co. Ltd., which owned the land, re-fused to disclose anything further.

Queen St. Deal Closed-Mc-Conkey Negotiating for Yonge Street Sites.

Nos. 33 to 37 West Queen street have been purchased outright by E. G. S. McConkey, who will erect a new two-storey restaurant. Altho Mr. McConkey would not mention the price which he paid for the 34 feet 5 inches, he stated that a notice to vacate had been given the present tenants, and work would be started about the 15th of the month. As this property was owned by the Knox Church it was considered to be almost unpurchasable,

Fifty thousand dollars is tied up in this way and candollars is tied up in this way and cannot be realized till prices again reach their height. The auditors say concerning the real estate account on which the deficiency is $10.011.31, that "we are forced to the conclusion that this account has been manipulated to show fictitious profits." The total amounts owing to the bank by the Dale family are $65.896.03. Against these accounts the bank holds as security real estate of a face value of $25,943.58.

"There is no precedent," Asquith admitted, "but the circumstances are extraordinary and unique."
"Is it not a precedent amounting to the refusal of the government to answer inconvenient questions?" demanded Bonar Law.
"Not at all," replied Asquith. "I put it on special grounds. I shall be glad to answer questions if any new facts arise."

Answering James Hope, the premier did not think it would serve public interest to make any statement at present regarding settlement prospects in regard to Ulster.
