

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Pages.
INTRODUCTION.	ix.-xv.
CHAPTER I.
General Description of Nova Scotia—Ancient County of Annapolis— Digby included in its limits—Boundaries of latter County—Geography —Natural History—Climate	1-14
CHAPTER II.
Earliest Historical References and Descriptions—French Explorations.	15-20
CHAPTER III.
Aborigines and their Footprints—Acadians and their Entrance within the County—Notes and Relics of Ancient Settlements.....	21-33
CHAPTER IV.
Earliest Land Grants in the County—Primary English Settlers—Induce- ments to emigrate thither—Locations and Sufferings—Grants to Acadiens.....	34-43
CHAPTER V.
Loyalists choose Conway as their Home—Their Locations, Conditions and First Experiences.....	44-51
CHAPTER VI.
Mode of Allotting Lands to the Loyalists—Progress of the Settlements— Miscellaneous.....	52-63
CHAPTER VII.
Township and other Grants—Discontent concerning the Allotment of Lands—Further Arrivals—Early Notes and Improvements....	64-86
CHAPTER VIII.
Public Worship—Earliest Clergymen—Churches erected.....	87-91
CHAPTER IX.
First Educational Efforts	92-96
CHAPTER X.
Clare formed a Township—Hillsburgh included with Clements—New Settlements.....	97-103
CHAPTER XI.
Commercial Progress—Fisheries—Religious Changes.....	104-105
CHAPTER XII.
Court of Sessions established at Digby—Improvements in Highways— Grant of Confirmation Issued—Confidence Restored—Dissenters be- coming Numerous and Influential—Efforts to record their Progress— Miscellaneous Notes	107-119