

CHAPTER III.

Expedition against Louisburgh—General Braddock defeated—Massachusetts assembly declare against parliamentary taxes, the stamp act—Riots at Boston on account of that act—The stamp act repealed—Mr. Charles Townsend's bill for taxing the colonies afresh—Troops ordered to Boston—Soldiers at Boston fire on the inhabitants—East-India company empowered to export their own Teas—Tea thrown into the sea at Boston—Measures pursued relative to the Boston port bill—Massachusetts people prepare to defend their rights by arms—Gage fortifies the entrance into Boston—Proceedings in the B houses of Parliament—Gen. Gage sends troops to Salem—He sends troops to Concord and Lexington, who are defeated—The restraining bills—Howe, Clinton, and Burgoyne sail for Boston.

Page 49.

CHAPTER IV.

The expedition against Ticonderoga. George Washington, Esquire, elected commander in chief of the continental forces. The battle at Breed's hill, commonly called Bunker's hill.—Georgia accedes