

to all the World, that their Hearts and Affections are sincere Oblations of Gratitude to your Majesty for your constant paternal Care, and especially for the recent Instance of your tender Attention to the Necessities of your People.

His Majesty's Answer, delivered the Twenty-eighth Day of October, 1766.

YOUR loyal and affectionate Professions upon the happy Events of my Queen's safe Delivery, and the Marriage of my Sister to my very good Ally, the King of Denmark, cannot but be most acceptable to me.

It is with Pleasure that I see the just Sense, which the City of London entertains of those Measures, which the Necessity of the Occasion obliged me to take for the Relief of my People, and I hope they will have the desired Effect of quieting Mens Minds, and removing the Distresses which seemed daily to increase.
