

The Synod appointed a Standing Committee (June 1, 1858,) on the French Mission, authorizing them to take such steps in its revival, maintenance and prosecution, as may be necessary, reporting their action to the Synod from time to time; and the Synod recommend the Mission to the continued countenance and active co-operation and sympathy of the congregations of the Church.

SECTION FOURTH—SCHOLARSHIP AND BURSARY SCHEME.

Presbyteries are enjoined to take such steps as to (July 12, 1842,) them may seem meet for the establishment of Bursaries at Queen's College for deserving students for the ministry.

The Synod appointed a committee on (May 31, 1859,) the Bursary Scheme to watch over the same and report.

The Synod having appointed the first (May 31, 1860,) Sabbath of March as a day of special prayer for Queen's College, and for bringing the claims of the College under the notice of their congregations, do earnestly recommend that on that, or other convenient day, a collection be taken up in aid of the Bursary Fund.

The Synod adopt the recommendation (June 6, 1860,) that the Fund shall be mainly employed in Scholarships, to be awarded according to the result of competitive University examinations.

It shall be henceforth designated the "Scholarship and Bursary Scheme."

SECTION FIFTH—JEWISH AND FOREIGN MISSION.

The Synod recommend to all Sessions (July 7, 1840), to appoint meetings at stated periods for bringing the subject of Missions before Congregations, and for united prayer in behalf thereof; and at such meetings, or otherwise, to make collections in aid of the Missions of the Church of Scotland, or such other object as may be approved of by the Sessions.

The Synod renew their previous (June 3, 1856), frequent declarations of interest in the Mission work, and of the duty of this Church to take part therein, and appoint a Committee to be called the "Jewish and Foreign Mission Committee of the Synod," to consider maturely the whole matter, and to report.

The Synod directed that funds (June 6, 1866), which may be contributed expressly for British Columbia, be transmitted to the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland, in aid of their Mission to that Province; and that funds contributed for Foreign Missions be transmitted to the India Mission Committee of the Church of Scotland, to be by them applied towards paying the salary of the Rev. Charles J. Cameron, Missionary at Madras.

The Synod recommend all Congregations to contribute to the support of the India Mission of the Church of Scotland, by collections, contributions from Missionary Associations, or otherwise.

SECTION SIXTH—SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Synod, earnestly desiring the (June 2, 1857), efficiency of Sabbath Schools, direct the attention of Sessions and Presbyteries to the matter, appoint a Committee to be designated The Synod's Committee on Sabbath Schools,—who shall exercise a general superintendence, and shall have power to take such action of a local or general kind, as to them may seem judicious—instruct Kirk-sessions to forward annually
