

, whence I was
naired, till early
of our Convent
ere on the 25th
left it, sixteen
ng me to that
ay in my native
after the hard-
had conceived
e reverse; my
of that part; I
itution; repose
m myself to it
y Superiors an
which suited me
. They were
hen I was per-
in the French
bois.

of my voyages
better satisfied

You may rest
not in accord-
that the rumors
tion; I should
n at Frankfort,
shall be all my
other,

er,
a, Recollect.