

OF MEMBERS AND THEIR DUTY.

I.—No brother shall be admitted a member of a Lodge, unless the laws of the craft, relating to the proposing and admitting of candidates, shall have been strictly complied with.

II.—Every brother initiated in a Lodge thereby becomes a member, without any further proposition or ballot, provided he express his wish to that effect on the day of his initiation.

III.—The member who proposes a candidate for initiation shall be responsible for the payment of the fees.

IV.—A brother who has been concerned in making masons clandestinely, or at a Lodge which is not a regular Lodge, or for small and unworthy considerations, or who may assist in forming a new Lodge without the grand Master's authority, shall not be admitted as a member, nor even as a visitor, into any regular Lodge, nor partake of the general charity or other masonic privilege, till he make due submission and obtain grace.

V.—A brother shall not be entitled to partake of the general charity, unless his name shall have been duly registered, nor unless he shall have been at least for two years a contributing member of a Lodge. He must also shew that, at the time of his initiation into masonry, he was in good or at least tolerable circumstances. The limitation of two years is not meant to extend to the following cases, viz. shipwreck or capture at sea, loss by fire, or breaking or dislocating a limb, fully attested and proved.

VI.—No brother shall presume to print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, the proceedings of any Lodge, nor any part thereof, or the names of the persons present at such Lodge, without the direction of the grand Master, or Provincial Grand Master, under pain of being expelled from the order.

This law is not to extend to the writing, printing, or publishing of any notice or summons, issued to the members of the Lodge by the authority of the master.
