

CONTENTS

xi

CHAP.		PAGE
V.	THE PERSONALITY OF MAN	79
	1. Cross correspondences. Man a Coral Island.—
	2. Miracles.—3. The Ministry of Angels.—4. The Whole and its Parts.—5. The Communion of Love.

BOOK II. THE FOUNDERS

I.	GEORGE FOX	89
	1. Quakerism the mystical wing of the Puritan movement.—2. A revolt against clericalism.—3. Fox's early struggles and teaching.—4. The Westmoreland Seekers.
	—5. Swarthmoor.—6. The "Originality" of Fox.—
	7. Widespread interest in religion.—8. Quakerism stronger with time.—9. Character of George Fox.
II.	ISAAC PENINGTON	104
	1. His family and prospects.—2. His childish religion and early Calvinism.—3. A Seeker.—4. Collapse of Faith.
	—5. Marriage to Lady Springett.—6. First hearing of Quakers.—7. Path to Quakerism.—8. Meeting with George Fox.—9. The Seed.—10. His writings on the Organised Churches, on the Bible, and on Dogmatic Theology.—11. Old terms spiritually understood.—12.
	Outward troubles and imprisonments.—13. Settlement at Amersham, and Death.—14. Mary Penington's Testimony.—15. Works.
III.	SOME WRITINGS OF WILLIAM PENN	122
	1. The Sandy Foundation Shaken .—2. Innocency with
	her Open Face .—3. No Cross, No Crown .—4. Luxury .
IV.	BARCLAY'S APOLOGY	134
	1. The Standard Statement of Scholarly Quakerism.—
	2. Immediate Revelation.—3. The Scriptures.—4. The Divine Light and a Natural Light.—5. The Universal and Saving Light.—6. The Conscience.—7. Justification and Sanctification.—8. Christian Perfection.—9. Unprofessional Ministry.—10. Non-liturgical Worship.—11.
	Other points.	