Saturday at Juarez.
JUAREZ, Dec. 17.—A series of surprises marked the sport here on Saturday. Oscar, an odds-on favorite, was the only pick to get home in front. In the third race the tilly Secrete was played down 20 down to 4 to 1, and outrunning he field all the way, lasted long enough to win by a slight margin. Another big surprise in the last race, when Salvage, at 20 to 1, won all the way, beating out a farm favorite in Bellsnick and

Toronto Hunt Polo Annual

Officers Elected and Club Shown to Be in Flourishing Condition.

The annual meeting of the Toronto Hunt Polo Club was held on Saturday afternoon. There was a large attendance of members.

All the reports proved of a satisfactory character. The captain, D. M. Mc-Carthy, presented a review of the club's membership, showing that while the victories won by the club had not been as numerous as might possibly have been wished, the club had had the most successful year in its career, being now stronger in membership than ever. It was the aim of the club to popularize the game rather than to achieve victories, feeling that those who played polo should be vigorous and strong by its playing.

A number of new members had been added during the year, all of whom had entered into the spirit of the game and proved acquisitions. If they had not won often it had been to some extent owing to their desire to bring the new members forward. Turning to the ensuing year, the report said the prospects were very bright, as the applications for membership proved that the policy pursued the past season had had the desired effect not only in increasing the membership, but in adding new ponies.
The return of Major H. C. Bickford from abroad, for that gentleman had proved a tower of strength. It was gentleman had consented to act as secretary-treasurer, and would be pleased to hear from any gentleman willing to take up polo during the year. Letters could be addressed to him at 13 Toronto-street.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, A. O. Beadmore; chaptain, D. L. McCarthy; secretary-treasurer, Major H. C. Bickford; committee, Major C. T. Van Straubenz, Capt. Mc-Millan, F. S. Hammond, K. R. Marshall and J. H. Mackinnon.

PLAYING INDOOR BALL OFFICERS' LEAGUE OPENS

Grenadiers Beat Body Guards, While Highlanders Win From Queen's Own.

Owing to unavoidable interruptions later in the season, the Officers' Indoor Ball League decided to open a little earlier than usual, playing their first game Saturday night at the armories. The attendance was not as large as usual, owing, no doubt, to the lack of advertising.
About two hundred friends of the league were on hand to encourage their favorites, and were amply repaid by the class of ball put up by the different teams. An orchestra in the gallery enlivened the interval between innings. There will be no games in this league during the Christmas holidays, the next game to be played Jan. 6.

The champion Grenadiers had the honor of winning the first game, displaying some of last year's form in the field and on the bases. Nordheimer and Green pulling off a very fast double-play. The Body Guard outdid their opponents, but were not so well-balanced a team as the Grenadiers. Sprague shows signs of being some better, and Coleman's fielding was spectacular.

The second game was a pitchers' battle between Foy and Muntz, with Foy a little more brilliant and receiving much better support.

The Highlanders' heavy hitting is a feature of all their games, Godfrey getting away to a good start with five hits out of six times up. Anderson looks like a valuable addition to the team, while the old reliable John Wright is always in the game. The scores:
