Everything is in readiness for the first game of the series between Columbus and Toronto for the championship of the minor baseball leagues. This will be the first opportunity Toronto has ever had of witnessing baseball as served up had of witnessing baseball as served up in the American Association and Eastern League. Both teams arrived in the city yester-day and practised at the park. The vis-itors showed up well in practice, the in-field working like clockwork. Wrigley, the former Worcester man, being the star. Columbus are minus Outfielder Mc-Creary, who was unable to come. His place will be taken by Pitcher Hall. Jude, who plays left field, is a full-blooded In-dian, being very much of the Louis Bruce type:

dian, being very much of the Louis Bruce type: An unfortunate and regrettable acci-dent happened during Columbus' practice, when Southpaw Upp was hit by a batted ball over the heart by Friel. Upp, who is their star twirler, was slated to pitch the opening game for the season. The chances are Robertaille, the spit-ball artist, will work to-day for the vis-itors, while Manager Kelley will pin his hopes on McGinley. The game will be called at 3 p.m., with the usual prices prevailing. Programs will be given away free. WILLIAM CLYMER Manager Columbus, Three Championa American Base Association. Acting-President White of the Eastern League and President. O'Brien of the American Association arrived in town yesterday afternoon for the post-season series, and last night they gave the ump pires, Owens and Steve Kane. their final instructions. They also met the representatives of the Leafs and Columbus and settled all the minor details in cord-nection with the games.
They instructed Managers Kelley and Clymer that the players were under the subject to discipline and fines, and are
