ONLY ONE LONE CANADIAN HONORED BY KING EDWARD

Sir Richard Cartwright Among New Privy Counsellors—List Otherwise Uninteresting.

London, Nov. 9.—With the exception of some possibly significant decorations to Portuguese and Japanese officials, the long list of His Majesty's birthday honors is comparatively uninteresting. Some promotions in connection with the coronation ceremonies and the South African war, and because of services rendered to commerce and in parliament, are announced. No new peerages have been created.

Sir Richard Cartwright, Canadian Minister of Commerce; Lord Revelstoke, chairman of the recent commission on London docks, and the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, are among the new privy counsellors.

The new baronets include Alexander H. Brown, M.P., and Augustus Frayser, Governor of the Bank of England. Among other honors recorded in the list is the conferring upon the Japanese Prince Arisakawa, a coronation viscount of the decoration of Knight of the Order of the Garter and Companion of the Bath.

Sir James L. Mackay and Count Matsugata, ex-Premier of Japan, are made Knights of the Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George. Col. Machado and Captain Ferreira, of the Portuguese navy, who have both filled the post of Governor of Mozambique, and Viscount Castro, Governor of the Mozambique Company, are made Knights, Commander of St. Michael and St. George.

Gen. Gorring, present Governor of Mozambique, is made a Knight Commander of the Bath. Rear Admiral Lambton, R.N., is appointed Extra Equerry to His Majesty. King Edward has approved the escheatment of a new medal, to be awarded officers of mercantile marine serving on chartered troop transports.

KING AT DIVINE SERVICE.

Taking the Kaiser's Arm, He Entered the Church at Sandringham. Sandringham, Nov. 9.—The weather here to-day was perfect, and the bright sunshine brought out crowds of visitors to Sandringham on the chance of seeing Emperor William and King Edward on the first anniversary of his birthday.

The approaches to the church were lined with spectators. Queen Alexandra, the Prince of Wales and Mrs. Chamberlain arrived at the place of worship together. Half an hour later, King Edward, Emperor William, Prime Minister Balfour, Colonel Curzon, and other distinguished persons arrived and stood chatting outside the church.

King Edward, dressed in Mr. Chamberlain for a few minutes, then the Emperor of Germany approached the altar. The Emperor and King Edward were conversed earnestly. The service had been in progress for some time before the royal party entered the church, the King taking the Emperor's arm.

The Bishop of Ripon preached on the possibility of the disappearance of free institutions, and the attaining of the grand brotherhood of man. He referred to King Edward's recovery from his illness, and to the visit of his kinsman monarch and to the ties which have long united Germany and Great Britain, and to the ocean, a race which has grown on the other side of the Atlantic, where German and English are fraternally united.

DR. PARKIN IN LONDON.

Pleased With the Way Colleges Are Treating Rhodes Request. London, Nov. 9.—Dr. Parkin, visiting at Oxford, says he has been greatly interested in the way all the colleges discuss the best plans of working the Rhodes students into the university systems. All the replies to his inquiries he has received up to the present are very favorable. The request for the first year will elect seventy to seventy-five students and a similar number in the second year.

In the third year there will be about thirty. Each college is prepared to take from two to five scholars every year. Oxford University has twenty colleges. There are from eighty to two hundred undergraduates in each college.

ELECTRICITY SUPPLANTS STEAM.

English Railwaymen on a Visit to Canada to Get Pointers. Montreal, Nov. 9.—Messrs. H. A. Watson, general superintendent, and J. Cudworth, engineer, all of the Northern Railway of England, reached here to-day, being on a visit to Canada and the States. They are about changing 47 miles of the Northeastern, near Newcastle, from steam to electric power, and are looking for hints on this side of the Atlantic. Mr. Watson says that the Lancashire and Yorkshire will also make a change in the congested districts near Manchester and adjoining lines.

NEWFOUNDLAND NAVAL RESERVE.

Recruits to Be Taken South for a Training Course. St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 9.—The British cruiser Charley will sail on Monday for the West Indies, taking 100 Newfoundland fishermen recruits for the British naval reserve. These men will serve a six months' training course. The recruits taken by the Charley are double in number the party previously taken. Half of them will join the flagship Ariadne and the other half will remain aboard the Charley. The training ship Calypso will remain at St. John's permanently. She will take on board three hundred other recruits.

LOST BOTH LEGS.

London Young Man Fell Off a Moving Train. London, Nov. 9.—David McKenna, aged 22 years, whose parents live at No. 518 Central-avenue, was the victim of a most shocking accident near here this morning. While standing on a Grand Trunk train from Pontiac, Mich., to this city, he fell to the track, and was run over by the train. His legs were so badly mangled that it was found necessary to amputate them both. His arm and face were badly bruised, and it is feared he was also injured internally. He was removed to Victoria Hospital, where he now lies in a critical condition. His parents are well-to-do people, and why he should have chosen this means of reaching home is not known.

BANK FOR WOMEN.

Run Solely by Women, to Be Founded in New York. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—Mrs. Sarah Dick of Huntington, who had the distinction of being the only woman cashier of a national bank in the United States, has been offered the presidency of a banking institution which is being organized in New York. The new bank will cater especially to the patronage of women. The capitalists interested in the New York enterprise desire to have the concern officered exclusively by women.

WORK FOR ARBITRATION COURT.

Rights of Foreigners in Japan Will Be Decided. The Hague, Nov. 9.—The Arbitration Tribunal will assemble early next year to settle the question of foreign settlements in Japan and the rights of foreigners to hold property there. The dispute involves Japan on one side and England, Germany and France on the other. All three powers agreed to refer the question of the rights of foreigners to the Arbitration Tribunal.

GERMAN WIRELESS STATION.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—A wireless telegraph station between Berlin and Venice, with a range of 800 kilometres, will be established this winter at Oberrain, near Berlin, for a trial. Edward & Company, Chatterbox Accounts, 25 Wellington St. East—Geo. Edwards, C. A., A. H. Edwards.

TO SUBSCRIPTION AGENTS.

The annual cost of the World is but $1 a year, and subscribers can have this same rate on quarterly or half-yearly payments. By authorized subscription agents and new dealers a commission is allowed on subscription. The old rate of commission has been abolished, and agents who have not been notified by letter are herewith informed that such abolition took effect on Aug. 15.

JOHN A. SPAFFORD DEAD.

Colborne, Nov. 8.—John A. Spafford died here to-day aged 90. He was born near Nanapanee. For 60 years he has farmed near here.

BULLET IN HIS HEAD.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—W. W. Waters, a Dominion police, was found dead this afternoon with a bullet in his head. An autopsy will be held.

ODD BATTLE WITH DOUKHOBORS AT MINNEDOSA. FANATICS HUGGED ONE ANOTHER TO FORM HUMAN CHAIN. POLICE AND CITIZENS TUMBLED THEM INTO CARS.

Pedley Corralled Them in Skating Rink—Journey to Train, 100 Yards, Most Remarkable in Canada's History—Took Five Policemen to Move Each Douk—Casualties Numerous But Not Serious.

Minnedosa, Man., Nov. 9.—Another chapter in the history of the Doukhobors' pilgrimage to convert the world has closed, but with the end, "to be continued." On the arrival of the Doukhobor army here they were met by Mr. Pedley and Mr. Speers, who led them to the skating rink. They formed outside and sang a psalm then were led in prayer by one of their number, who addressed the citizens, asking them to go quietly to their homes, but Zerkoff, who has been exhorting them ever since their arrival here to remain firm, again tried to hold them together.

Mr. Speers grabbed Zerkoff, and in spite of his struggles and fighting, ran to the rink and called to the police to bring the rest. They went off all right, but as soon as they got to the rink and called to the police by every man hugging another, making a solid body.

Then the excitement commenced. The citizens turned out and helped the police, but it was hard work for a while to even get the Doukhobors apart. They had four or five men together in this interlocked position. It took four or five men to get them apart, and many an amusing scene was witnessed.

Several accidents. One citizen was nearly run over, a Doukhobor had his ankle broken and there were many other minor mishaps. A few of the Doukhobors went to the police and to the rink and called to the police by every man hugging another, making a solid body.

They showed that they were well posted on current events, saying they wanted to go south to convert the miners in the recent coal strike. From this interview it was most apparent that their religion was not their only object, but that they were going to force the government to give them their own laws and they would trump to some other country, but as after this showing, no other country would have them, Mr. Pedley decided to let them go to the villages and kept them.

Broken Away at 11. Mr. Pedley told them they must prepare to return next day, and that he would go back with them, which seemed to satisfy them temporarily.

They were bitterly fought by the Doukhobors, as they seriously objected to being driven by horses. The fight in getting the Doukhobors the one hundred yards from the rink to the station ended in a victory for the government forces, but the Doukhobor army again formed for battle, and it was here that by far the fiercest fighting occurred. The Doukhobors fought, kicked and clung to everything they could get hold of, the majority contesting every inch of the ground.

It was an impossibility for any one policeman to lead a Doukhobor. Some took as many as five or six, and then clung hard to be made to make the Doukhobors lose their hold. But as soon as a clubbed off one place they fought at another, and most stubbornly contested every inch of the way.

The Doukhobors were by far the heaviest built and used every ounce of their immense bulk to advantage. Although not on the offensive, they certainly made every inch of the ground the remarks of admiration for the fight they put up. Although the weather was bitterly cold, Mr. Speers said after talking to many of his army, "I don't think there is a Canuck here with a dry shirt."

Government Wins. Victory at last crowned the government forces, and the Doukhobors were all in getting the Doukhobors back to the villages. If the fight here is any example of what the government has to contend with, it will take a much larger force to move the Doukhobors the one hundred miles to their villages, and this chapter in the history of the Doukhobors' pilgrimage must assuredly end "to be continued."

HON. MR. SIFTON PRESIDED. Announces That He is and Always Has Been an Abstainer. Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The prohibitionists opened the oratorical part of the referendum campaign here to-day by holding two meetings, at which J. A. Nichol was the orator. At the meeting in St. Patrick's Hall to-night, Hon. Clifford Sifton presided. He said he was always a total abstainer, and his father and grandfather were abstainers before him. His views, instead of growing weaker, were becoming stronger. He described the liquor traffic as the greatest evil in the country, and was glad to be present to show his sympathy with the temperance cause.

CAZARINA RAISES A STORM.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—The Czarina has an unfortunate faculty of making herself unpopular. Her latest false step has been to turn Alexander II's cabinet into a bathroom. This was the room in which the present Czar's grandfather wrote his epoch-making ukase liberating 23,000,000 of Russian serfs.

POPE WON'T RECEIVE LOUBET.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Gaulois says that the Pope has intimated that he is unwilling to receive President Loubet of France if the President should previously visit King Victor Emmanuel, President Loubet. The Gaulois says, will avoid Rome and will meet the King elsewhere.

GENERAL SPOKE FIVE HOURS.

Buffalo, Nov. 9.—Gen. William Booth addressed three meetings here to-day, speaking altogether five hours. He was heard by over 80,000 persons at the three meetings and hundreds were turned away.

PROGRESS OF EDUCATION BILL.

With the Aid of Closure, It Will Pass Before Christmas. London, Nov. 9.—Parliament is making steady progress with the education bill, which, with the aid of the drastic enforcement of closure, will be passed before Christmas. Mr. Balfour is in a conciliatory and inflexible. The acceptance of an amendment securing to the laity of the Church of England control over religious education in the church schools is an important concession to those who dread the influence of the dogmatic and ritualistic clergy, and the radical nationhood of the bill is not to be taken as a concession to those who are in conformity with the wishes of the bishops.

"ROASTED" ACTOR GETS DAMAGES.

Sympathetic British Jury Gave Judgment Against Newspaper. London, Nov. 9.—The manager of a fifth-rate traveling company, who also acted in a piece, brought a suit for damages because of some adverse criticism of his company in a newspaper. The evidence clearly showed that the critic was fully justified in his remarks and might have said more.

TO GUARANTEE A BOND.

Said Parliament Will Be Asked to Assist the C.N.R. Montreal, Nov. 9.—It is understood here that at least one important railway aid measure will be brought before parliament in the coming session. Parliament will be asked to guarantee a bond issue on the Canadian Northern Railway for a distance of not less than 700 miles. It is said that Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann will begin work on the Pacific coast, as well as at several points in the Saskatchewan and under various New England contracts, transcontinental highway. British Columbia has already voted about $500,000 to assist the construction of this line.

MASCAGNI NOT ARRESTED.

Rumor to That Effect Untrue—Hopes to Go on. Boston, Nov. 9.—A rumor gained wide circulation this evening to the effect that Mascagni, the Italian composer, had been arrested in connection with his failure to give performances under various New England contracts, but according to Mr. Mackie, his private secretary, the rumor is untrue. Mr. Mackie said that Mascagni had been absolutely no truth in the report, and that the famous Italian musician was still in Boston trying to make some arrangements whereby he could continue his tour in this country.

CZAR DEPRESSED IN MIND.

Condition of Russian Ruler Creates Anxiety in Copenhagen. Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—According to information received at the Danish Court, Emperor Nicholas of Russia is greatly depressed in mind and is melancholy. His condition has created anxiety here. The Emperor will leave St. Petersburg in a few days for Copenhagen, does not want to go to Yalta, in the south of Russia, where the czar and the other two boys went on their homes in Port Hope.

PORT HOPE BOY KILLED.

Was Bumping and Fell Between the Freight Cars. Cobourg, Nov. 9.—A young boy, about 12 years of age, and hauling from 12 years of age, and falling from a west-bound freight train about 5 o'clock this evening was terribly mangled. At the time of reporting his name has not been ascertained. He, in company with two other little boys, were bumping when the one fell and the other two boys went on to their homes in Port Hope.

SOMETHING FOR PREFONTAINE.

In Montreal It is Considered That He is Sure of a Portfolio. Montreal, Nov. 9.—It looks to-day as if Mr. Prefontaine had downed his enemies and that the ex-Mayor is absolutely sure of a portfolio. It is even said that the men here who have been doing their best to keep Mr. Prefontaine out of the government have not only thrown up the sponge, but will even join in a further movement to have the Department of Public Works remain in this province.

Interest Now Centres About What Crown Will Do With Herbert, Who Confessed.

London, Nov. 9.—(Special)—"Not guilty" was the verdict in the Sifton murder case Saturday evening. It was the result of a week's trial. This was practically the third trial of the famous criminal case. At 5 o'clock the jury were given the final instructions and retired. Three hours later they returned and Foreman Gillies reported to Judge Britton that an agreement was impossible. At that hour two stood out for conviction and the balance for acquittal. The judge sent the jury back to see if an agreement was not possible. In 20 minutes they reported an agreement, "Not guilty."

Long Fight for Life.

This is one of the most remarkable criminal trials in the history of Canadian jurisprudence. It has cost the Crown more than $25,000, and Gerald Sifton has been fighting for his life since June 30, 1900. Through the contest the prisoner has not apparently considered his position as if he was in danger. When the jury reported this inability to agree, Sifton merely smiled. When they reported a few minutes later an agreement the accused showed some interest for the first time, but he still did not appear to expect anything of an alarming character. When the foreman's report was announced he sat up and hugged his wife, but in no other way indicated his pleasure. Then he handed his hat and left the court-room with his wife, after an imprisonment of more than two years, most of the time in the very shabby cell at the scaffold.

What of Herbert?

What will the Crown do in the case of Walter Herbert, who voluntarily confessed that he was a party to the murder of old Mr. Sifton? Herbert swore that Gerald Sifton was a murderer, but the jury says he is not. If Herbert is sentenced to death it will be upon his own statements, which are discredited by the acquittal of Sifton. Inspector Murray says he does not know what action will be taken by the young man. He is of the opinion that the young man will be brought before the judge and that he will be set at liberty. In view of the verdict in the Sifton case, the inspector has to say that the next step can be taken.

50 CASES OF SMALLPOX.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 9.—Fifty cases of smallpox are reported in Kent County. Dr. E. B. Fisher, secretary of the Provincial Health Board, returned from Kent on Saturday. The afflicted ones have been conceding the fact, which makes the work of stamping out the disease all the harder.

Silk Hats at Dineen's.

Every man, in his time, needs a silk hat. Dineen's has been purveyors of stylish hats for the past thirty-eight years. They have sent silk hats to every important function held in Ontario since their establishment. It is therefore good precedent to buy a silk hat at Dineen's. They are the agents for Healy's English hats and for Duniap's American hats. Of course there is the Dineen hat, also. Prices for silk hats at Dineen's, $5 to $8.

MOSTLY FAIR.

Meteorological Office, Toronto, Nov. 9.—(8 p.m.) The weather has been fair and calm from the Lower Lakes region to the Maritime Provinces, and continued very cold in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, with a temperature as low as 20 below zero in some localities. Maximum temperature: Dawson, 4-8; Victoria, 38-44; Barkerville, 18-24; Winnipeg, 10-14; Regina, 2-6; Montreal, 20-26; Quebec, 24-44; Halifax, 30-38.

Probabilities.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Fresh to strong westerly to north-westerly winds for the most part, but a few scattered showers or snow buries; turning much colder. Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence—Fresh to strong southerly to north-westerly winds; for the most part fair, but a few scattered showers or snow buries; turning much colder. Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Fresh to strong southerly, shifting to north-westerly; winds; a few scattered showers, but no snow buries; turning much colder. Lake Superior—Fresh northwesterly and southerly winds; and steady cold; local snow buries. Manitoba—Fair and very cold.
