FOUND DYING BY ROADSIDE

Eight Bicyclists and One Auto Driver to Be Summoned for Riding on Sidewalks.

Toronto Junction, June 26.—An unknown man was found in a dying condition at the rear of the Rowntree Farm, on Weston-road, York Township, about 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Dr. Mason was called and everything possible was done to resuscitate the man, but his efforts failed, the unfortunate dying about twenty minutes after his arrival. The body was taken to Brown's Hotel, about three hundred yards distant, where it was subsequently found by the police. The man, whose name was not given, was a farmer named Pearson, on the 6th line, York Township. A bank-book found on his person showed that he had $33 to his credit in a city bank. Wm. Speers took charge of the remains, which will be kept for a couple of days awaiting a claimant.

At the athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon the Young Shamrocks defeated the Minnie Stars in a lacrosse match, the score being 7 to 4. In a town league baseball match St. Cecilia won from Weston by 9 runs to 1.

Victoria Presbyterian Sunday School held their annual picnic at Island Park on Saturday afternoon, a large number attending.

Scarboro.

The Maple Leaf Football Club have issued invitations to their annual at home, to be held at Wm. Humphrey's, at 12, rear corner, 2 Scarboro, on Wednesday evening, at 8.30. Music will be furnished by Glendon's Orchestra.

King Township.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, King Township, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 22, when their eldest daughter, Nellie May, was united to J. Howard Williamson of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. L. Brown of Tottenham, on the lawn, under an evergreen arch, beautifully decorated with white and white roses, in the presence of about sixty guests. The bride was charmingly attired in cream Paris de chene, trimmed with all-over lace and satin ribbon. She was attended by Miss Isabelle Rutledge of Toronto, who was mainly groomed in white crepe and tulle. The groom was supported by his brother, E. T. Williamson of Toronto. The bride's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, while the bridesmaid a pearl necklace. The bride's traveling costume was blue and white, and the groom's was blue and white. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left on the evening train for Toronto, Niagara, Rochester and other places.

East Toronto.

East Toronto.—Service was conducted in the Presbyterian Church tonight by the Rev. Mr. Rogers, and in the Methodist Church by Rev. Mr. Wilson. In each the attendance was large.

St. John's Industrial School on Saturday afternoon defeated the Whippoorwill Baseball Club by 18 to 13.

Good progress is being made with the laying of information against nine offenders, who are charged with riding bicycles, and in one case, an automobile. The case of the latter is being taken to court to explain the matter to Magistrate Ormrod.

Acting Mayor Alexander McLeod, a duly qualified taxpayer, W. E. Middleton will on Tuesday move in the high court for an order to compel the town council to submit a by-law to the electors in compliance with the petition presented at last meeting of council. The petition was signed by twenty names necessary for the success of the petition. It is asserted that the town council had no right to allow the petitioners to withdraw their names.

A row of houses on Main-street, belonging to Mr. Dudley, are being remodelled.

SPREAD A SWORDFISH.

Kingsport, June 26.—John Parmenter appeared a swordfish in the Gananoque River near the St. Lawrence steel and wire works. The fish is the largest ever seen here, measuring from point of bill to tip of tail exactly 4 feet.

San Editor Returns.

Rodney, June 26.—On April 21 last the Elgin Sun printed a letter over the signature of Rev. J. F. Scott, attacking the editor of the Toronto World. The letter at once instituted an action for damages, claiming $5000, but a full retraction was published by the Sun man, and this has been accepted. $5000 will be no libel suit.

First Dress Parade by 91st Highlanders—City Foresters Attend Service.

Hamilton, June 26.—Charlie Adams, who lives at 211 North Bay-street, was taken to the City Hospital Saturday evening with thirteen cuts. Among them were several severe scalp wounds. He said that he was the victim of an irate man with a carpenter's plane.

Ross Wallace, Jackson-street, is accused of doing the cutting. He was placed in jail for a few days last week, and when he got home he caught Adams in the house, so it is alleged. A warrant has been issued for his arrest, but he has not been located yet. Adams will live.

Another case of diphtheria has broken out in the affected district at the corner of West-avenue and King-street. The coroner's jury met at Green Bros' morgue Saturday night and viewed the remains of Wilson Roy, the four-year-old son of William Roy, Kinross-avenue, who was fatally injured by a street car Saturday afternoon, and adjourned till Tuesday morning to report on the case. The little fellow was running across Barton-street, near the corner of Chestnut-avenue, with a copper his father had given him to buy some candy. He passed safely in front of a street car, but was frightened by a rig and stepped back against the wheels of the street car, which was moving slowly. One leg was cut off near the hip and the other was broken. He died two hours afterwards in St. John's Hospital.
