Mrs. D. Herkimer, Hall's Bridge, Ont., was Troubled with Weak Heart and Sleeplessness.

How many women are troubled with a weak heart? How many lie, night after night, trying to sleep, and can't? Perhaps you are one of them? If so, read what Mrs. Herkimer says. It may save you years of suffering if you take her night, trying to sleep, and can't? Per-

"I am now enjoying the best of health, after having used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled with a weak heart, and was afraid to draw a long breath, for the pain it would cause me. I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten vards without resting myself. I cannot speak too highly Terminals at Montreal, Midland, Toronto and Port Stanley and Connections With 5 Other Roads.

Montreal, June 26 .- (Special.) - Under the act of parliament sanctioned a company was changed to the Central Railway Company of Canada. The mpany is now authorized to construct its main line of railway between Montreal, Ottawa and a Georgian Bay port, which will probably be Midland. The route selected is almost on the air line, and will be the shortest possile line, and will be the shortest possible line, Montreal being within three hundred and forty miles of the Great Lakes. The line is to be a high-class one with a maximum gradient either way of a half per cent., assuring the very lowest cost in transportation.

By a charter obtained from the Ontario legislature at its last resiston. by a charter obtained from the Christian legislature at its last ression power was given for two important branches, one to connect the main line with Toronto and the other to give a direct connection with Stratford, London, St. Thomas and Port Stanley. The line will thus connect directly with the line will thus connect directly with the Grand Trunk, Canadian Pacific, Michigan Central, Wabash and Pere Margan Central, Wabash and Pere Marquette Railways, and have a terminal on Lakes Huron, Erle and Ontario on the west and Montreal on the east. It will shorten the distance to Montreal from almost all points in Northwestern Ontario, besides opening up an extensive new district in Central Ontario.

An important meeting of directors has just been held in Montreal, among those present being Senators Domville, Owen and Cloran, Messrs, German and Othler, M.P.'s, and Messrs. Raphael and Gauthier. Senator Domville was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Col. McMullen. Senator Owens is first vices. McMullen. Endorse Refusal of Pastor to Accept Transfer.

Kingston, June 26.—(Special.)—Affairs are reaching a crisis between Princess street Methodist Church here and the Montreal conference.

The congregation by a very large majority endorsed Rev. Dr. Tucker in his refusal to accept the ruling of the stationing committee which sent him to a smaller church in St. John's Que., after he had been here only a year. The "unfair tactics" of the committee were referred to by several.

Rev. W. Sparling, president of the conference, met the congregation and attempted to induce them to accept the ruling of conference, but failed.
