

The Globe Beats Inferno Mile Handicap Race in 1.43

Favorites Again Fail in Five of the Seven Races at Woodbine Park—Long Shots Win in Four.

Favorites showed a slight improvement in winning ability on the second day at Woodbine Park, there being actually two first choices to finish in front on Monday, Stromeland and Terah, each at odds-on. Inferno, second choice, won the first, and after the third race they were all long shots, 10 to 1 or better.

The Dominion Handicap, at a mile, was the feature, with the Seagram pair, Selma and Inferno favorites at prohibitive odds, and The Globe best them both in the very ordinary time of 1.43, with no excuses. They all took a turn in front, except Selma, and the weights kept the field together all round. They were in the round the last lap, with Selma and Inferno beside him. The Globe drove past them for a win by a length, Inferno a half in front of Selma. The winner had a heavy pull, second and third, while Selma was a half length behind. The price kept the public off Seagram.

Long Shot Winners.
Next in importance the money standpoint was the steeplechase, and by far the most picturesque of the day. It was a horrible race, as far as scientific leaping goes, only the winner going the course straight. The vaudeville began at jump No. 1, when Weatherhairs refused. Next Knox Boy went down, closely followed by Grey Plume and Jimmy Lane. On the back double Jimmy Lane and broke Grove's collar bone, the only serious mishap of an eventful chase. Finally Octopus toppled over, and of the nine only three remained, the six that refused or fell, scampering hither and thither so many sheep. Now the Pessara 4-year-old gelding was leading, the little field, Capstan second and Woodbine third, when Octopus struck Woodbine and the latter fell like she broke her neck, but was only stunned and later destroyed. This was at the club house corner and there were just two left for the money. Capstan went on about his business like the easy winner he proved to be. Ted was all in and finished like a champion, winning the Marathon. He worked over the third last jump and the next was worse. The last he was pulled and pushed through the obstacle and finished about three minutes behind the winner, or two inside the time limit. There was nothing for the third money. Barring an odd picker on Capstan the books wiped away the race. Ebban, Nicol, and a male named on Selma, who was in the first at the wire. Park Row third, the others never contending. The three were backed some way. The books kept more on Magazine that ran disappointingly.

The second was a gift to Stromeland. Col. Zeb second and Silk Horse third, nothing else to beat. They were backed this way.
The third was Terah, Ontario and Col. Jack, same on the track and in the ring. Here the public were getting some. In the fourth, at a mile and a sixteenth, Lally, at long odds, and sparsely supported, scored a head and a neck over the trick Annetta Lady. Zipango third, the strongly played favorite Belmore nowhere.

Next Melton Cloth, extending in price, was the long shot to land first at every post. Hoyle and Long, who were finishing strong second and third, but without challenging the leader, were the only ones. Powers scored two wins, but hardly rewarded his followers who backed his mounts down regardless of the odds.

The last race of the day capped the climax. The Seagram pair, Inferno (Nicol) and Selma (Mugrave), at 1-5, had to lower their colors to The Globe, that was at any odd price, and the chances are that Kelpie would have been first or second had she not been cut off at the first turn by Nicol on Inferno.

15-1 NOTING LESS

Yes, it was blue Monday all right, all right, all right. Well, turfites, we have to have a bad day once in a while. I've got blood in my eye to-day, and mind what I tell you, there'll be many a bookie walk the plank before I get through with them to-day.

15-1 NOTING LESS

on the star baby of the meeting, that is what we expect.

I have given you three good ones hand running, and to-day I'll round out the quartette with the juiciest babe in the lot. As a matter of fact the owner of this horse is poor and the feed bill must be paid. After a season of bad luck he's got to that point where he must win a race, and this is the day. Having been carefully kept under cover, the price will be good enough to suit any player of long shots and it will outclass its field, receive a vigorous ride and get the money. I expect all my clients who played the other three to go back to this with a stiff bet. There will be no heart-burnings after the race, save among the Knights of the Chalk and Rubber. Don't let this opportunity pass you by.

TERMS: $2 Daily; $3 Two Days, or $5 for the Meeting.

Lager Purity

To make a Beer like O'Keefe's Pilsener after the celebrated German Pilsen formula, purity is not only desirable, but absolutely necessary.

O'KEEFE'S PILSENER LAGER

is brewed only from the best barley malt, choicest hops, and absolutely chemically pure water. The water is filtered before brewing, and the beer filtered before bottling and afterwards pasteurized in the bottles. Mild and delightful, always pure and healthful.
