They keep on betting in Holland on the English classics. The latest quotation from Masters, Crook & Co. of Flushing who are making big future books, show that, while Lemberg is still favorite for the Derby, to be run on June 1, he has gone up to 7 to 2 from 3 to 1. Neil Gow remains steady at 4 to 1. Admiral Hawke is at 8, with 10 to 1 against Greenback and Tressady; 12 to 1 against Impregnable, Merry Jack and Rochester; 14 to 1 against Charles O'Malley, 16 to 1 against San Antonio, 20 to 1 against H. P. Whitney's Sallie of Navarre colt, and Maid of Corinth.

Champion Jack Johnson put on the gloves yesterday in the gymnasium in the rear of his Wabash-avenue home in Chicago for the first real boxing bout of his advance preparation for the fight with Jeffries on July 4. W. K. Vanderbilt's stable carried off the honors at Saint Cloud yesterday. His Ripolin won the Prix de la Pom-meraye, purse $1400, distance one and one-half miles. His Prestissimo II. won the Prix de Bailly, $1600, distance 7 fur-longs, and his Defender finished third in the Prix de Tessancourt.

Battling Nelson will not get the first chance at Ad Wolgast, the new light-weight champion, as had been expected. A letter from Wolgast to a friend in Milwaukee says that he has signed up for a battle for 45 rounds with Matty Baldwin for June 27. Baldwin's share of the proceeds is not stated, but Wolgast says he will receive $5000 and training expenses as a guarantee.

Expressing entire confidence in his ability to get into condition for a long fight with Jack Johnson. J. J. Jeffries arrived from Los Angeles, en route to his training quarters in the Santa Cruz mountains. He will go to his camp today, accompanied by his manager, Sam Berger, and the usual retinue of rubbers and trainers. Berger said in Jeffries' hearing that they expected to win from Johnson in ten rounds or less, and the fighter smiled approval of the statement, tho he said nothing.

Roosevelt Dines With King Victor.

ROME, April 4.—Twice to-day Theodore Roosevelt was the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. The king received the ex-president at an early hour at the Quirinal, and they talked for nearly an hour. This evening there was a grand dinner at the palace, given by the king and queen in honor of the Roosevelts.
