BELGIANS IN RAIDS

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—At the judicial enquiry in Hull this afternoon in connection with license bribery charges, Ald. Lavigne swore that Wilfrid Barr offered him money, amount not specified, to get him to vote for the license of Albert Gratton, retail liquor store, as also did Gratton himself. Ald. Lavigne refused the offer and voted against Gratton.

N. Boucher, proprietor of the Windsor Hotel, testified that he had "encouraged" Ald. Talbot and Charest, butchers and grocers, by placing orders amounting to about $100 each as an appreciation of their support of his license.

Owing to the conflicting evidence given during the enquiry some witnesses will be recalled tomorrow morning. Ald. Stafford, who denied that he received the $250, as stated by J. Mullen, will be one of them. Ottawa, Oct. 29.—At the judicial enquiry

Hon Arthur Meighen was received with a great round of applause. He urged the necessity of raising the war loan. It was essential to the existence of the country. Canada, he said was now to reverse former conditions and loan money to Great Britain in order that Great Britain may purchase Canadian goods, even Canadian wheat. The United States as yet had not seen fit to join hands financially with Canada and the other allies, but the speaker hoped that time would come.

Mr. Meighen, touching upon the coming campaign, said that it had deen found nocessary to divide the union candidates in the west suitably
