Great Strategists Lacking Among British, He Tells Press

Agency.

New York, Oct. 30.—A News Agency despatch from Berlin says:
Arriving in Berlin for his first visit of the war. Field Marshal von Hindenburg became the object of demonstrations thruout the city. It was several hours after he had reached Berlin before the news spread. Shopkeepers quickly hung out flags and crowds gathered, anxious for a glimpse of Germany's war hero.

of Germany's war hero.

Hindenburg was first received by the kaiser at Bellevue Palace, and later, with his wife and daughter, dined with kaiser and kaiserin. It is understood that he met some of the government heads after his conference with the emperor. ference with the emperor.

The kaiser himself spent several hours in Berlin Saturday. After vis-iting a city soup kitchen and eating some of the cabbage and meat stew, his majesty received a lengthy re-port from Chancellor von Bethmann. "HINDY" IS A BRAGGART.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, German chief of staff, is quoted by the Overseas News Agency

"The French show great tenacity, but they are exterminating lives by their method of fighting. All their tenacity will be of no avail, for in the end there will be none of them left. This fate of the French nation is owing, above all else, to the British. If the British ask next spring for one more offensive campaign, they will rob France of the remainder of her army and her national strength.

"This war will make no great change in the estimate of British military accomplishments. Great strategists, in particular, are lacking among the British.

Transylvanian situation is nt. The Roumanians are in retreat and the day of reckoning is retreat and the day of reckoning is coming. I welcomed their entrance into the war with joy. By means of it we got out of trench warfare."

The field marshal then spoke about the visit to Berlin of the Turkish minister of war, Enver Pasha, whom he called a "clear, honest and trustworthy man and an excellent soldier."

SHORTAGE IN TONNAGE. CALLING FOR REMEDY

Montreal, Oct. 30.—It is about time Canada was doing something to relieve the ocean tonnage shortage, according to Hon. J. R. Sinclair, New Zealand member of the dominions royal commission, which this morning heard evidence with regard to ship scarcity from James Carruthers, Montreal. Mr. Carruthers also spoke with reference to freight rates on wheat and flour. The side of the shipowners on these points was presented by W. I. Gear, Montreal.

In dealing with the shortage of ecean tonnage, Mr. Carruthers said that it would be possible to ship twice the quantity of grain from Montreal, if the ocean tonnage were available. His explanation of the shortage was the increased insurance on the St. Lawrence route and the great disadvantage of the port being closed during the winter.

Poorer Professional Classes Are Amongst Those Hard Hit by Scarcity.

In addressing a selected audience in Berlin recently on the question of food supply a high German official pointed out that 5,000,000 people can afford to buy what the law allows them at any prices, but that the remaining 25,000, 000 Germans not on the land or in war work had to take what was left, even tho the remainder, he said, amounted at the time he spoke to 2, 200 food calories, or 200 calories less than the minimum standard for sustaining life. This atatement made a sensation, and, needless to say, was not permitted to appear in the German press. Herr Batocki held forth hope that just as soon as the new harvests were in it would be possible to raise the sustenance level. There are already indications that this is being done.

Your Directors have pleasure in reporting that the friendly action brown by the City of Toronto against the Gas Company, to determine whether the corner of the Company should bear the cost of the removal of gas mains laid in a catreet to another location in the street, in order to permit the City to construction of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in favor of the Company. At the trial of the action in the County Court of the County of York, Ju Winchester gave judgment in favor of the City, but his judgment was rever by the First Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Ontario. An app was taken by the City to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, which, a judgment delivered on the 1st day of August last, sustained the judgment the Appellate Division, in favor of the Company. The Judicial Committee of Privy Council found that whilst it was within the right of the City, in construct a drain, to order the lowering of the Company's gas main, the City is bound pay the cost of doing the work. The settlement of this question will regulate general liability as between the City and the Gas Company for the cost operations of such nature.
