

SUPREME COUNCIL OF

To the Inspector-General several members of a

VERY DEAR BROTHER,—

I have again to fulfil you the death of a member to call from this life the HORNSBY, who died on day he had been apparent and spirits

On such an occasion speak? Let us rather bow strive to throw ourselves mercy, which never fail, a sorrow, darkness and igno know not the hour. It is alas! too often disregarde

Our late brother had retary of the Board of W kingdom, and respected as many years service he ha honours of his public caree to enjoy them long.

He was known among but chiefly as the active a Cross Chapter It is not forget its obligation to the it so long and so well our Supreme Council.

For myself, I lament but as a valued friend. In companions of former year

He has gone,—but h without previous suffering upon us, O Lord

I direct that this letter at the next meeting of ea Council and all its Subor Masonic mourning for thi you farewell

May our Father, who

OR.' OF DUBLIN, 2nd Fe