

Provided also that every such conveyance shall receive the sanction of the Bishop, signified by his being a party thereto, and executing the same, without which sanction no such conveyance shall be valid in law.

SEC. 17. The Church Corporation may not dispose of the proceeds of such sale as they please. The following investments are those only allowed by law:

- i. The purchase of other lands situate in the same parish, and not elsewhere.
- ii. To be put and kept out at legal interest, payable yearly or half yearly, upon good and sufficient landed security.
- iii. Investment in securities of the Dominion of Canada.
- iv. Or in Provincial debentures of any Province in Canada.
- v. Or in public or municipal debentures or securities issued under the authority of any Act of the Parliament of Canada, or of any Province within the Dominion.

The following are expressly forbidden: The stock or shares of any joint stock or incorporated company; or as deposit in the hands of any private banker. To lend it on personal security is also illegal.

All investments and re-investments of such moneys must be made with the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese; and a description of the security and the name of the person who holds it, or the place of deposit, shall be at once entered upon the minute book of the Vestry, and a copy of the entry sent to the Secretary of the Synod, to be kept with the records of the Synod.

SEC. 18. The Church Corporation must have a book of minutes of their proceedings, to be kept by one appointed by the Corporation, to be called the Vestry Clerk, who need not be one of themselves, though it is perfectly lawful for one of the Corporation to act as the Vestry Clerk.

It shall be the duty of the Vestry Clerk to attend all meetings of the Corporation; to take careful minutes of its proceedings, and enter them in "the Book of Minutes;" which minutes shall be signed by the Rector or Chairman of the meeting; he shall attest the public acts of the Corporation; and preserve all books, papers, records, etc., belonging to the Corporation. He is to deliver into the hands of his successor all books, papers, and property belonging to the Corporation which shall be in his custody, and if required shall, at the Easter Eve meeting, deliver over a list of books and other documents in his charge, to be entered on the minutes.

SEC. 19. The Vestry Clerk, or one of the Church Wardens, must give a receipt for moneys paid towards the support of the Church, to enable the subscriber to have a right to his vote, whether for the Church officers on Easter Monday, or for the election of a Rector.

SEC. 20. In order that the parish registers may be kept in a place of security, the Corporation shall provide a secure box, of iron if possible,
