Delicious Soups
and Tasty Gravies

Are what every lady desires to have served at her table. But unfortunately it often happens that when prepared in the ordinary way they lack nourishment and flavor. At such times

"Bovril" is invaluable

A little "Bovril" added to a weak, tasteless soup gives it richness, strength, and a delightfully appetizing flavour. The next time you make soup try a little "Bovril" in it. You'll appreciate the difference.

HOCKEY

The hockey season opened in this city last evening when the Sackville team took the Memorial Cup into camp to the tune of $2,000. The game was not as the score would indicate, all one-sided, but was very fast hockey. The game opened with the Maroons being the better of it and it looked as if the boys in maroon and grey were in for a win, but the Sackville boys then got down to work and landed several goals. The Maroons then tried to have things their own way and they got into the game in earnest, for the first time in the evening and were successful in landing three goals before time was called, while the Sackville boys were unsuccessful in increasing their score.

The second half started with Sackville continuing to have things their own way and they were not long in landing their eighth goal. The Maroons then tried to realize that they had been sleeping and they got into the game in earnest, for the first time in the evening and were successful in landing three goals before time was called, while the Sackville boys were unsuccessful in increasing their score.

The game was marked by many offside plays which were largely due to the slackness of the referee, who was very lax in watching offside plays and shading. Norman and Stuart were especially noticeable for their offside work, and should have been called the side lines on numerous occasions. Neither of the teams was, however, paralyzed by the referee.

The second game, which was between the Maroons and St. John's, was by no means slow, the first half ending 2 to 0 in favor of St. John's, while in the second half the Maroons got into the game and scored three goals, the score standing at the end of the game 2 to 2.

The line was:

Proposed Matches.

Two proposed hockey matches are those between the Maroons and the local team and an arrangement from Mount Allison University.

CURLING

Amherst, N. S., Jan. 15.—(Special)—At the Winter Fair building this morning a short meeting to welcome the visiting curlers was held. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. S. W. Cummings, chaplain of the Chignecto Club. Mayor Silken gave a brief address of welcome, after which K. C. Fuller, president of the Chignecto Club, and N. Curry spoke briefly. The mild weather of this morning necessitated the postponement of the playing for the governor-general's trophy, from 9.30 until 1 o'clock this afternoon. At that hour the temperature began to drop, continuing during the afternoon, so that play began promptly at 1 o'clock with the ice in perfect condition.

In the extra session called on at 1 o'clock Skip W. I. Goodwin, Sackville, beat Skip T. S. Rogers, Amherst, 14 to 11.

Skip Nat Doberty, Stellarton, beat P. J. Martin, Mayflower, Halifax, 23 to 2.

Skip Jack McDougall, Amherst, beat James Yonston, Pictou, 10 to 13.

J. W. Taylor, Amherst, beat Nat Curry, Amherst, 15 to 12.

W. R. Mackenzie, New Glasgow, beat C. H. McDonald, Charlottetown, 10 to 10.

W. P. Cunningham, Antigonish, beat C. J. Kerr, Halifax, 17 to 9.

A. Costley, Halifax, beat F. McDougall, Moncton, 16 to 6.

First Round Governor-General's Trophy

ARMY OF BEGGARS HOUNDS MRS. SAGE

She Cannot Venture From Her Home Without Being Importuned for Gifts of Money.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Russell Sage is practically in a state of siege at her country home, at Lawrence, N. Y., because of the importunities of applicants for her bounty.

So persistent have been the demands upon her, not only by special messengers and by mail, but by those who hope to obtain a personal interview, that she has almost been driven out of her recreation.

Scores of these beggars who would extort from her some promise or gift of money for either real or fancied needs, are in wait outside the grounds and outside are maintained by men and women who trust to luck that fortune may favor them in their appeals.

Mrs. Sage has been in a quandary whether to remain in Lawrence or come into the city to live, but does personal friends have advised her to remain where she is. For, as one of them remarked, "Mrs. Sage is hounded to death in the country, but she wouldn't know a moment's peace where she to move to New York."

Mrs. Sage has, according to the statement of this friend, determined that she will grant an interview to no one; that she will neither see nor speak with anyone not an intimate friend or who does not come accredited from her attorney, Henry W. De Forest. Her servants have been instructed to this effect.

"As a matter of fact," said this friend, "Mrs. Sage is beginning to feel herself persecuted and things have come to such a state that she hesitates to go abroad either alone or with friends."

Mr. De Forest, at his office, said that Mrs. Sage would see no one who had claims to present, would not announce in advance any gift, or allow it to be suggested in any manner, nor would she be interviewed.

A meeting of the committee of the Police Relief Association having under consideration the holding of the annual sports for the benefit of the association was held yesterday afternoon. A decision will be arrived at at a meeting of the association Thursday. Unless more satisfactory arrangements are made with the rink management no sports are likely to take place.

A meeting of the trustees and board of management of the Y. M. C. A. is called for this evening at 8 o'clock in the office of the president, L. P. D. Tilley. The building. The site for the new building and other matters will be discussed.

THE RING

BOXING NOTES.

Harry Scroggs and Kid Attell will meet in Baltimore on Jan. 23.

Marvin Hart and Mike Schreck are once more matched, this time for Hot Springs for Feb. 4.

George Menzies and Adam Ryan will be matched for a 20-round fight in Los Angeles for next month.

Jack Langdon of Philadelphia and Gus Beranah will meet in a 20-round battle at Dayton, on Feb. 1, at 180 pounds.

The line was:

There seems to be a growing impression that Joe Gans can whip Jack O'Leary. The Canadian boxing press says he will bet $2,000 on Gans any time or any place.

The long standing dispute between Dave Decker and Jimmy Briggs is likely to be settled before long if a club will put the match on. East wants a better price.

Jim Jeffries demands $25,000 for a fight with Scudder. The scheduled laboring man gets $175 a day, or $646 if he loses no time during a year. That means if he started work at the age of 18 he would make $2,950 that Jim has earned as much as J. J. J. wants for one fight.

Champion Jim Jeffries has been engaged to referee the Abe Attell-Harry Baker contest at Los Angeles Friday night, and will receive $1,000 for his services. This will make $2,950 that Jim has earned as much as J. J. J. wants for one fight.

TRUE BILL AGAINST COLLINS HE ENTERS NOT GUILTY PLEA

Jury Was Almost Three and a Half Hours Agreeing on a Bill—Solicitor General Jones Outlines the Crown Case.

Hopewell Cape, via Hopewell, N. B., Jan. 15.—The trial of Thomas F. Collins for the murder of Mary Ann MacAulay in New Ireland in August last, was fairly started here this afternoon. Contrary to a generally expressed opinion, it was only the work of a very short time to secure a jury.

The prisoner, who was brought in from the jail, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Solicitor-General Jones then opened for the crown, and court adjourned at 5.30 till 10.15 tomorrow morning.

Judge Gregory's charge to the grand jury was brief. He rapidly reviewed the history of the crime, which he said was committed either Aug. 19 or 20. He also remarked on Collins' disappearance from Father MacAulay's house on that date, and the contradictory accounts he gave of himself to several witnesses, who afterwards testified to his presence at the crime.

The fact that the prisoner was found in possession of two values taken from the priest's house, as well as various articles which belonged to Father MacAulay and his niece was also suspicious. He left the matter in their hands, merely giving them general directions as to their conduct.

AN INDEPENDENT VIEW OF CANADIAN POLITICS

Growing Resentment Against Canadian Manufacturers' Association—Feeling in the West—A Movement Toward Low Tariff—No High Tariff Agitation.

(Toronto News.)

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—The tariff debate may be expected to begin in earnest now that parliament is back at work. It also may be expected to close far more promptly than many people anticipate. Of course, several hundred and fifty items cannot be passed off-hand, and a certain amount of discussion of the tariff which may appear in the future will be only natural. So, too, will proposals for amendment here and there. But if any person thinks that the Conservative party will have the hammer of high protection, clamor on behalf of the distressed manufacturer, or denounce every lowering of the tariff which may appear in the future will be only natural. So, too, will proposals for amendment here and there. But if any person thinks that the Conservative party will have the hammer of high protection, clamor on behalf of the distressed manufacturer, or denounce every lowering of the tariff which may appear in the future will be only natural. So, too, will proposals for amendment here and there.

LOW TARIFF WESTERN CONSERVATIVES.

The Conservative party, in fact, is confronted with a particularly stable fact. Its western members have struck. Out on the prairies the farmers seem to have made up their mind about the tariff. They do not want it. And as the Opposition member is peculiarly close to the people, and has little to rely upon but popular opinion, the Western Conservatives—and, for that matter, the Western Liberals, too—have found themselves in a difficult position. They have been forced to make a choice between the support of their constituents; but one hears tales of farmers' meetings at which the situation was canvassed, and the result was a demand for increased duties. When they get into caucus with their fellow-Conservatives from Eastern Canada they find themselves extremely reluctant to agree to any fight for protection; so reluctant that the issue was not pressed and the question stood over. Nor is that all; they are seriously in the mood for a declaration for a reduction, say a halving, of the duty on agricultural implements. In this latter matter—to the surprise of the Eastern Conservatives—their constituents are in a good deal of support among Eastern Conservatives.

This Western revolt is the outstanding feature of the situation. But apart from the case of the duties on agricultural implements, it must not be supposed that the Eastern Conservatives are altogether given over to protectionism, and wholly disgusted with the Western situation. RESENTMENT AGAINST THE MANUFACTURERS.

One fact to be borne in mind is Conservative resentment against the manufacturers' if that class can have a collective name. "What have the manufacturers done for us that we should incur any more responsibility for them?" is the sort of remark you hear now. The Conservative party has had a decade of answering for all sorts of misadventures, and now it is getting pretty sick of it. One particular responsibility which it has borne for many years upon its shoulders is the Canadian manufacturer. Once upon a time the Canadian manufacturer, report says, was grateful for a while back for "taking the tariff out of politics" as to forget his old friend who is in politics, and also in adversity. The old friend is getting resentful.

LAWYERS OPPOSE JUDICATURE ACT

A number of barristers of the province held a meeting in the law library yesterday morning while the Exchequer and Equity courts were in session and unanimously decided that it would be advisable to reconsider the question of passing the new judicature act. A communication signed by those present was sent to Allan O. Earle, K. C., the president, requesting that a special meeting of the Barristers' Society be held on this matter before the next annual meeting.

In the discussion which took place the opinion was generally expressed that a large majority of the barristers of the province were opposed to the passage of the act. It was also the general opinion that the present practice of the courts, and that the new judicature act too many applications had to be made to the judges during the progress of a suit, inconvenience to practitioners in counties where the judges did not reside was also referred to.

The following request to the president of the society was eventually drafted and signed by those present:

WARREN C. WINSLOW, GREG. W. FOWLER, ROY CAMPBELL, W. A. MOTT, R. W. KNOWLES, R. W. McLELLAN, J. P. DYER, J. H. HAZEN, W. A. WALLACE, W. C. TREED.

It is understood that the rules of the society provide that a special meeting must be called at the request of ten members. It will likely be held at an early date.

Fire which is thought to have been smoldering for five days in the bottom of a chimney broke out in the house of Mrs. Amelia J. London, 367 Chesley street, at 4.20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A small alarm was sent in and No. 2 chemical engine quickly responded and the blaze was extinguished without much difficulty. Last Thursday the house was afire and was quite badly damaged.

F. R. Taylor returned yesterday from Charlottetown.

W. H. Trueman returned yesterday from Ottawa.

LET THERE BE MORE PUBLICITY

More Frequent Information Needed from Companies' Stocks of Which Are Listed.

(Montreal Gazette.)

Much interest was aroused on the "retreat" today by The Gazette's suggestion that one remedy for the present stock market stagnation might be found by companies, the stocks of which are listed on the Canadian exchanges, taking their shareholders and the public more into their confidence, and issuing statements from time to time showing their earnings and progress, such as is done by the big railway companies and the traction companies. The subject was freely discussed by members of the local stock exchange, and the consensus of opinion was that if such a method was adopted by companies which now keep their affairs a sealed book until the annual statement is issued, the public would take much greater interest in them, and there would be a great deal more investment buying than there is at present. The London Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange, it is pointed out, exacts such statements from companies whose stocks are listed on the exchange, and there is no reason why the same rule should not be followed in Canada. It is true that when application is made to list a stock on the Montreal Exchange the company has to furnish a statement showing its position before the stock can be listed, but after it is listed very frequently there is nothing to show the progress being made by the companies or where statements are furnished they are supplied as confidential and are not accessible to the shareholders of the companies or the public. There is a strong feeling that shareholders and the investing public should be given more frequent information. Prominent members of the Montreal Exchange, when seen today, expressed entire approval of the suggestion as made in The Gazette this morning, and the hope is expressed that it will bear fruit in the interest of the investing public.

GROWING OLD WHILE YET YOUNG

What a number of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case.

There are thousands of females all over our land, broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with disease peculiar to their sex, and growing old while yet young. From early morning till late at night they have been on the go year after year, attending to the household and doing the housework. A friend of mine advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I did and I only took them for a short time before I was better.

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.35 at all dealers. They are sold by mail at a special price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. W. J. Russell, Vaux, Ont., writes: "As one time I suffered greatly from my heart and nerves, and the shortness of breath was so bad I could scarcely do my housework. A friend of mine advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I did and I only took them for a short time before I was better."
