

VII. The Sub-Committee shall meet once a week to consider the cases reported by the visitors, and for the dispatch of such other business as may be intrusted to it by the Committee.

VIII. It shall be the duty of every visitor strictly to investigate any case of distress coming under his notice, and if immediate relief be necessary he shall be permitted to render assistance to the amount of not more than 5s. until the pleasure of the Sub-Committee be known.

IX. A subscription of one shilling per month to be collected in the different Wards by the Visitors, shall be solicited as extensively as possible, and any donations which the friends of this Society may be inclined to bestow, shall be thankfully received.

X. As Journeymen and Servants who are now receiving wages, may through sickness or other causes be thrown out of employ and may become objects of attention from the Society, they shall also be requested to contribute sixpence monthly.

XI. Any sum remaining in the hands of the visitors at the last weekly meeting of the Sub-Committee, shall be then paid in to the said Committee, to be by them paid over to the Treasurer previous to the next monthly meeting.

XII. As this Society is formed solely for benevolent purposes, none of its members shall receive the least remuneration for their services, and each subscriber shall at any time be at liberty to withdraw his name on giving one month's notice to the visitor of the Ward in which he resides.

XIII. The Books of this Society shall be always open to the inspection of the Public.
