

PET DOG GAVE LIFE IN SAVING FAMILY
Westfield, Mass., Sept. 24.—Barking of Muggins, a pet fox terrier, awakened the family and guests of Clarence K. Prince of 118 West Silver street early today in time for the family to make a hurried exit from the house, which was gutted by fire.

The blaze was discovered by a passer-by at 4:45 o'clock, and he hammered in the front door. This aroused the pet dog and his barking awakened Fred A. Knott, father of Mrs. Prince, and he in turn awakened the other members of the family.

Included were Mrs. Prince, her son, Ralph Prince, and grandson, Robert Prince, the 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Prince of Philadelphia who was a guest of his grandparents; Miss Hannah Fyfe, former matron and superintendent of Noble Hospital here, who was a guest of the family on her return from Red Cross work overseas, and Catherine Bowler, the maid.

Seeing what clothing they could, the family left the house, expecting Muggins to follow. However, the dog was not satisfied that all was well with the previously sleeping inmates and he went again to the room of Mr. Knott. There Muggins was found suffocated by the dense smoke after the fire had been extinguished.

The loss on the building and contents is $5,000.
