CONSTIPATION Can Be Cured.

You cannot expect to be well if you allow your bowels to become clogged. What is necessary is to have a free motion every day, and to keep them in this condition all the time if you wish to be strong and healthy. If you don't keep them open the system will become clogged up with poisonous matter and produce constipation, headache, dyspepsia, bad blood, etc.

Keep the bowels in good condition by using Burdock Blood Bitters; the remedy that has built up an unrivalled reputation, during the past thirty-six years, as a cure for all troubles arising from a constipated condition of the bowels.

Mrs. Thomas Calder, East Lower Fort Garry, writes:—"I am writing you to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I suffered very much from constipation and some of the medicines I took agreed with me. Now I am glad to say that there is nothing like B.B.B. Since taking it I have not been troubled."

OHIO MINE DISASTER COSTS FIFTEEN LIVES

Bellef Valley, Ohio, May 18—Burned and blackened the bodies of fifteen miners who lost their lives early last evening when an explosion of fire damp partially wrecked the Imperial mine, were brought to the surface today by rescuers working under the direction of Deputy State Mine Inspector Hillwood.

Several attempts were made by rescuers to enter the mine last night, but the gas had not vanished sufficiently to allow the rescuers to reach the bodies until after daylight this morning. As each body was brought to the surface, it was identified and taken into the engine room of the mine, where it was prepared for burial.

Henry Fairhurst, aged 22 years, one of the first rescuers to enter the mine, placed the body of Roy Yeager in a cart, but the gas then overcame him. His companions found his body and placed it in the cart beside that of Yeager and took them to the surface. Yeager survived after being thrown 300 feet by the explosion.

MR. DOWNIE ASSISTS AT CELEBRATION OF MASONS IN THE WEST

This is Anniversary Day of Lodge He Organized—Vancouver Paper's Tribute

(Vancouver Province, May 10) The members of Cascade Lodge are looking forward with considerable interest to the arrival of William Downie, general superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway at St. John, N. B., who is expected to arrive here about May 17 to conduct the ceremonies at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the institution of that lodge, which will be celebrated on Monday.

A quarter of a century is a long time in this swiftly-moving western country and it is largely to be attributed to strange to say, nearly every officer, including J. W. Horne, Lacy R. Johnson, W. O. Miller, W. G. Salisbury, Stacey Henderson, D. B. Charlson, J. W. McFarland, C. Gardner Johnson, who officiated at the opening of the lodge twenty-five years ago are alive today and will be on hand to take the same oath on anniversary night.

Old-time will remember that the first masonic lodge in Vancouver was Mount Hermon, which was first constituted under the Grand Lodge of Scotland at Moodyville, but moved over to Vancouver about the time of the arrival of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

About this time it was thought that Vancouver was big enough for two lodges and Mr. Downie, as worshipful master, with J. W. Horne and Lacy R. Johnson as wardens, soon had a list of about thirty-five names who became charter members of Cascade Lodge, which is today one of the largest and most successful lodges in the west.

It is generally conceded amongst Free Masons that the success of Cascade Lodge is largely to be attributed to the excellent principles laid down by the first worshipful master, which have been followed ever since. Worshipful master after worshipful master has not only lived up to the written laws and constitution, but has striven to uphold those traditions and that unwritten law of loyalty and fraternalism which is intangible and which is the heart of the masonic craft.

Mr. Downie had a remarkable career in the masonic craft. He was elected grand master in June, 1888. He ruled the craft wisely and well, visiting every lodge but one in British Columbia during his term of office. Many of his rulings are still law in the grand lodge today, and Free Masons always look upon him with added pride and respect because not only was he able to give wise judgments, but his whole life has been a living example of what a good Free Mason should be.

Many changes have taken place in the masonic craft since William Downie ruled the craft. There are today as many lodges in Vancouver alone as there were in the city of the founding of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia which was formed. Spacious rooms and corridors have been added to the building. Where the attendance was scores it is now hundreds and it is expected that the development of the province will be on a grand scale.

Some idea of William Downie's devotion to the cause of Masonry may be understood when he will come across the continent for no other purpose than to attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of his lodge, which is almost to the moment, surrounded by almost the same officers who were present at the same ceremony on an occasion that will bring every member of Cascade Lodge to this great meeting.

It is the intention of Worshipful Master F. C. Bird to invite the worshipful masters of the city lodges, Grand Masters of the province and other distinguished Free Masons to attend.

Mr. Downie, accompanied by Mrs. Downie, will leave St. John in his private car in a few days and is expected here about the 17th inst.

EVERYBODY GO TO SEE IT

To the Editor of The Times:— Sir,—Commissioner McLellan has had a civic clean-up day with good results.

MORNING LOCALS

John Fixter, of Ottawa, a member of the Agricultural Division of the Conservation Commission of the Dominion Government, accompanied by K. M. Fiske arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Fixter has been on a visit of inspection throughout the province to the various farming centres and will today inspect the farms of John Keith at Anguille and Mr. Cunningham at Bloodfield. He said that the New Brunswick farms were generally of a high grade but thought that the province to the westward was doing better in the way of the working of the land and the variety of machinery used.

The proposed run of the N. B. Automobile Association to Boston will likely be started on August 9. A day has been set apart by the association for the members to get out and make repairs to some of the roads leading from the city. About $1,200 was raised on Saturday towards the upkeep of the Robbsey and Westfield roads.

H. A. Porter has received a telegram from Chas. A. Caban, of Montreal, who was to be the guest of the Canadian Club tomorrow evening, announcing the serious illness of his mother at Yarmouth, N. S., and saying that he was leaving for there last night. His lecture has been indefinitely postponed.

Considerable damage was done on Saturday afternoon when a house in Wright street owned by the St. John Real Estate Co., and occupied by E. M. Jones and A. Ross was badly gutted by fire. It is thought the fire was caused by a fire cracker which a number of boys were setting off nearby. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

The delay in the construction of the new government wharves at West St. John, which has been caused by the arrival of a raft of half a million feet which was brought down river on Saturday, has been increased to two hundred. A start will be made on the concrete filling and superstructure for the wharves soon to be increased to two hundred.

PUBLICITY FOR ST. JOHN

We hear, as we have done for years, talk of an incinerator.

The Women's Council has furnished the schools with posters or cards telling of the evils of the house fly.

Dr. Melvin, the health officer, favors us with long articles on sanitation, etc., and they should be the production of much good, but, notwithstanding its suggested or seeming interest, none generally manifested in the health of our children, it seems that the old-time horror of a dump where everything is deposited, has totally disappeared.

Unless it is now recognized by those engaged in such matters, that a "dump" containing all kinds of vegetables and other matter is necessary to health, it would invite Commissioner McLellan, the Women's Council, the School Board and Dr. Melvin to visit the east of the Aberdeen school where a "dump" has been continually used for years and which has been filled in in such a way that it has climbed almost half the height of the Aberdeen fence and drainage, if any, would certainly be toward the Aberdeen yard.

The Playground Association is also invited to the inspection if they are thinking of using the Aberdeen grounds this year.

Yours in the interest of the children, C. W. CITIZEN.

How Will She Look When She is Old?

By J. R. HAMILTON Former Advertising Manager, Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

ABOUT THE most delightfully foolish thing a man does is to let a woman set the stage for her attractions—moonlight through the trees, appealing perfume, soft music, etc.—and then ask her to be his partner for life.

And about the most delightfully foolish thing a woman does is to take a fancy to a man's smile or the color of his eyes or the way his hair grows above his forehead and accept him on that basis as the earning partner in their little firm of matrimony.

Goodness knows this sort of thing causes enough trouble in marriage without carrying it on into the other business of life.

Yet for the most part that is just what we do from the buying of a piano to the choosing of a pair of shoes.

Because we insist upon choosing our husband or our wife by moonlight is no reason why we should throw a glamour about the purchase of a brass bed or a petticoat.

Everything looks good when it is new, but like the Scotchman's wife what we want to know is how it is going to look twenty years from now. How is that piano going to last after our expert has shown us how beautiful it is? How are our shoes or our clothes going to look three months from now? How is our furniture going to look three years from now?

There is only one way to buy a thing when it is new and that is to buy it from a firm that guarantees it when it is old.

Now how are you going to get that guarantee? Why from the men who advertise of course.

They are the men who go on record concerning the things they sell. They are the men whose asset is their name. They are the men who have something more than their cash drawer to protect.

The time will come when the person who buys anything that is not advertised or buys from a firm that does not advertise will be looked upon as needing a guardian.

It is had enough to have a husband or a wife who does not fit or will not wear—that was probably a matter of sentiment. But there oughtn't to be such sentiment in the buying of a piece of furniture or a pair of shoes.
