

to the intellect of the young. Be it yours to labour to educate the heart in the Sabbath School and in the family, and work with energy to keep hold of the youth and preserve them to the Church by every legitimate means that your invention and solicitude can possibly devise. Be decided abstainers from all strong drinks and tobacco smoking, as injurious to the body, and bad in example; and as crippling your means for useful reading and sustaining the cause of God. Repudiating bigotry and sectarian feeling, be whole souled in your own Church and its measures; examine your Discipline; know the rules of your Church and keep them; patronize the literature of the Connexion; and never be in debt with your subscription to the Christian Journal, nor to the Preachers who supply your orders for Hymn Books, Magazines, &c., as they have to settle their accounts quarterly with the General Book Steward.

And now, dearly beloved Brethren, may the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the Sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work, to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."
