WOMEN AND SAILORS

LONDON, Dec. 27. — Wives and sweethearts of the mutinous German sailors have seized rifles and joined in defense of the royal palace against the civil guards, according to a dispatch filed in Berlin, Wednesday night, and received by the Express today.

Although the sailors have technically surrendered, they refused to leave the city and have announced they will continue to support Chancellor Ebert, who permits them to remain.

"The city is on the verge of anarchy and fighting is expected to continue," the despatch said.

Two distinct conflicts are now under way in the city — the armed opposition of the sailors and their women to orders transferring the men to coastal cities and the efforts of the rejuvenated Spartacists to overthrow the Ebert-Scheidemann government.

Control Vorwarts

BERLIN, Dec. 26. — The Spartacist faction was still in control late this afternoon of the offices of the Socialist newspaper Vorwarts, which were forcibly taken possession of by members of the group on Wednesday night. Chief of Police Eichhorn, however, had promised the editors of the newspaper that the invaders of the plant would be ejected by 6 o'clock this evening in order to make possible the publication of Friday's issue by the regular staff.

The seizure of the newspaper was suggested during the demonstration at the palace on Wednesday when Dr. Karl Liebknecht and other radicals delivered speeches. There were cries of "Onto the Vorwarts," and the demonstrators followed the Red Guard to the printing plant, which was unoccupied, as the day was a holiday.

After the seizure, volunteer composers responded to a call for skilled men and several of these started up the linotype machines. Spartacist writers provided copy for hand bills, which were issued under the caption, "Red Vorwarts." Meanwhile, the Red Guard had posted sentries at the doors and windows to repel invaders.

The retirement of Premier Ebert and Herr Scheidemann and their intimate colleagues was demanded.

UNITED STATES WANTS GREATEST NAVY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29. — Unless a league of nations or other tribunal that will make certain the limitation of international armament is established, the United States must build the greatest navy in the world, Secretary Daniels told the house naval committee.

"It is my firm conviction," declared the secretary, "that if the conference at Versailles does not result in a general agreement to put an end to naval building on the part of all the nations, then the United States must bend her will and bend her energies, must give her men and give her money to the task of the creation of incomparably the greatest navy in the world."
