The Hattland Advertiser intimates Woodstock and that C. L. Smith. M. P. P., is to take his place. The eport is probably correct. -[Globe.

Another Vacancy.

As the Globe has instructed the electors of Charlotte as to the manner in which they should fill the existing racancy in that county, people will be amazed at its modesty in not issuing its mandate in reference to the successor of Mr. Smith in the Assembly representation for Carleton, which that genleman's anticipated acceptance of the Woodstock postmastership will vacate. If the electors of the different constituencies would only leave all these matters to the Globe, it would save them a good deal of thought and worry, but what a menagerie there would be
