Another St. John Citizen Makes a Generous Gift.

The following letter is self-explanatory. To the President and Directors St. John Horticultural Society: Gentlemen,—Having observed elsewhere the interest taken by young people and others in the movements of small model sail boats, on the waters of pleasure, I am having built by A. N. Harned, the well known boat builder of the West Side, two miniature yachts, one schooner, the other sloop rigged, which, when completed, I will have much pleasure in presenting to the Association.

Yours very truly, J. R. ARMSTRONG.
