

Macaulay's History of England.
Green's History of the English People.
Guizot's History of France.
Carlyle's History of the French Revolution.
Gneist's History of the English Constitution.
Plato's Republic (Davies & Vaughan).
Kant's Critique of Pure Reason.
Hamilton's Metaphysics.
Mill's Examination of Hamilton.
Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding.
Descartes's Discourse on Method and Meditations.
Carpenter's Mental Physiology.
Berkeley's Philosophical Writings.

Prizes.

Two scholarships of the value of $25 each from the Halifax District, and one of the same value from the Cumberland District, together with gifts previously acknowledged, have enabled the Faculty to offer prizes which have been won by the following students:

MATRICULATION PRIZE. 1885—Herbert W. Sangster, $30.

MATRICULATION PRIZE for 1886, competition limited to students of Male Academy—Ephraim Chapman and Frank Harrison (equal)—$25.

Two prizes for ENGLISH COMPOSITION, $25—Thirteen essays written throughout the year, open for competition to all college students except the Seniors—George F. Dawson and W. T. D. Dunn (equal).

TWO ELOCUTION PRIZES, of $15 and $10 respectively—1st, Herbert A. Percival; 2nd, P. C. L. Harris.

THE ANNUAL PRIZE of $25, given by John McDonald, Esq., of Toronto, for Elocution, competed for by the conference students of Theology—George F. Dawson.

At the Matriculation Examination in September next, a Prize of $25 will be offered for competition to all candidates.

The number and value of Prizes to be awarded during the collegiate year 1886-7 will be announced at the close of the Matriculation Examination in September next.