DEMOCRATIC TROUBLE TO BE THRESEED OUT DURING BIC CAUCUS

Subway and Means Committee Take Up Matter of Tax on Incomes-Increase Likely.

Washington, D. C., March 23.—Differces among the Democrats regarding e form of the income tax bill, will threshed out at the coming Democratic caucus of the house. The sub was and means committee consider.

comes. Some of the Democrats insist that there must be a graduated income tax, and not a straight tax. Representative Garner, of Texas, is one of those who will fight out the cause of the graduated form of the tax, if the committee majority should agree upon a straight tax without attempting to graduate it, so as to make the greater percentage of the burden rest upon the richer classes.

KING CONSTANTINE REACHES SALONIKI

New Grecian Monarch Acclaimed by Populace - Pathetic Meeting with Widowed Dowager Queen.

Saloniki, March 23.—King Constantine arrived here today and was acclaimed by the populace. The foreign warships fired a salute of 21 guns. The king showed great grief, and the meeting between him and Dowager Queen Olga in the death chamber, was most affecting, both bursting into tears.

The body of the late King George will lie in state tomorrow and the residents of Saloniki will be allowed to pass before the coffin.

Rome, March 23.—The Duchess of Genoa had a narrow escape from being burned to obsash ttoday. While arcinting her arms and neck with a preparation for rheumatism, she approached too closely to a spirit lamp, and the preparation ignited. The Duchess was saved by her maid, who smothered the flames.

LATE KING OF THE HELLENES IN THE CITY IN WHICH HE WAS ASSASSINATED.

THE LATE KING OF THE HELLENS WITH THE QUEEN AND ROYAL FAMILY, ENTERING THE CHURCH OF

This picture, taken only recently, shows George I., King of the Helienes, with his wife, Queen Olga, in the city he had captured from the Turks at the head of a victorious army, only a short time before he was assassinated. Both the King and Queen were greatly loved by the Greek soldiers. During the Balkan war Queen Olga spent must of her time among the wounded soldiers, nursing their wounds and seeing that they were taken care of, while King George marched at the head of his troops during the entire war.
