

News of the Churches

BAPTIST

Rev. W. A. Cameron, pastor of the Bloor Street Church, Toronto, addressed the soldiers at Valcartier on Sunday, the sixth inst. Mr. Cameron's stirring address was listened to by over five thousand young men who greatly appreciated his strong and forceful utterances.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Goucher, of St. Stephen, occupied the pulpit of the First Church, Truro, in which his father ministered, at Tracy, N.S., a recent Sunday. He was also present at the opening exercises of Acadia Collegiate and Business School, where he made an inspiring address.

Rev. A. B. Cobbe, pastor of the First Church, Halifax, returned last week from an extended vacation in Ontario and occupied his own pulpit last Sunday. Both pastor and people are rejoicing in the prospect for a good year's work which is opening before them.

Rev. M. E. Fletcher, Field Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, was the preacher last Sunday at the dedication service at Tracy, N.S. church. Extensive repairs were made upon the church building and the services of the day were largely attended and most inspiring and profitable.

Dr. Perry B. Perkins was in St. John last week on his way to Brown University, where he will become professor of mechanics. Dr. Perkins, whose former home was Centerville, N. B., taught for a number of years at Howard University, Washington. He spent the last year in special study at Manchester.

Rev. F. Clarke Hartley began his public ministry in the First Church, Truro, N.S., on Sunday last. He received a cordial welcome from his people, most of whom have known him since his arrival in Truro a few days ago. Already Mr. Hartley has made a favorable impression on his church and congregation.

Rev. Dr. Geo. E. Day of Brookline, Mass., spent the week with his son-in-law, Rev. Dr. DeBlois, at Westfield, during which time he took the opportunity of visiting his old friends in Sheffield and vicinity. Dr. Day celebrated his eighty-first birthday on the ninth inst., and is yet in the enjoyment of all his faculties, and takes his usual keen interest in all things that make for the progress of the Kingdom. He returned to the United States last week.

Rev. G. P. Raymond occupied the pulpit of the Berwick, N.S. church last Sunday. He was warmly welcomed by his old parishioners.

Rev. Arthur S. Evans of Upper Gasquet, who resigned his pastorate some weeks ago, has recently accepted a call to remain for another year.

Rev. George B. MacDonald, pastor of the Main Street Church, Sussex, N. B., is spending a week in the Carleton and York County forests in search of big game.

Rev. F. G. Francis of Londonbury, preached a most helpful patriotic sermon on Sunday, September 6th. Excellent services continue to be held in Mr. Francis' work on his new field.

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. William Girdwood of St. Croix, N. S., preached to his former congregation in Prince William, N. B., last Sabbath.

Mr. Joseph Peppard of Great Village, N. S., celebrated his fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the ministry on the evening of Aug. 27. The jubilee of ministers and of congregations has become more or less frequent, but the jubilee of an elder is rather exceptional. Mr. Peppard is to be congratulated on his long and faithful service in the church. His age is eighty-ninth year, but still vigorous in mind and body.

Rev. A. S. Morton, who has been lecturer in Church History in Knox College, Toronto, during the temporary illness of Prof. Ballantyne, has recently returned from a visit to London, Eng., and has gone to Saskatoon to enter upon his new duties as Professor of History in the University of Saskatchewan, of which Prof. Walter C. Murray, a New Brunswicker, is President. Mr. Morton is well known in the Maritime Provinces, having held pastorates in Fairville and St. Stephen, N. B., and having held a Lectureship in Church History and Practical Theology in Halifax Presbyterian College for three years. He has more recently spent several years in further study and research in England and Scotland, and has been producing an extended work on the Reformation, which will be published in the near future. Prof. Morton is a son of the late Dr. John Morton of Trinidad and a brother of Rev. Harvey H. Morton, missionary in the Kapuna, Trinidad. His many friends will extend hearty congratulations as he enters upon his duties of his new appointment in Saskatoon.

Induction of Rev. R. Dewar. Rev. Robert Dewar, late of St. James church, Milltown, N. B., was inducted to the pastoral charge of the congregation of Prince William, N. B., on Friday, Sept. 11th. The service was held in the church at Southampton. Rev. Dr. Smith of Fredericton presided and inducted, Rev. J. P. McKay of Harvey gave the charge to the newly inducted minister and Rev. M. H. Manuul addressed the people. The congregation of the Presbyterian Church of St. John was extended by the moderator, Dr. Smith, to Mr. John Anderson, an elder of the congregation in active service in the church. His ordination was on his sixtieth birthday, a son of ninety-three years, the hope expressed that he may be long spared in happiness and health, and assurance accorded him that his long service, zeal and good works in the congregation of Prince William have secured for him a large and abiding place in the affection and regard of the Presbytery.

Rev. C. A. Myers

The Associate Secretary of Sabbath Schools, Young People's Societies, Rev. C. A. Myers, of Toronto, has spent a month in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island in the discharge of his duties to which he has been appointed. He spent last Sunday and Monday in St. John. He delivered, effective addresses to the congregations of Fairville in the morning and the evening, and to the Sabbath School of St. David's Church in the afternoon. On Monday forenoon he met with the Presbyterian Ministers' Association and after a searching and inspiring address upon the question of Church and the Young People, held an interesting conference with the brethren present. On Monday afternoon he met with members of the Presbytery of S. S. and Y. P. Committee and others, and plans were discussed for the presentation of the whole question of religious education before the congregations. In all his work, Mr. Myers showed a comprehensive and masterly grasp of the work which he has in hand. The General Assembly of 1915 made no mistake in its appointment.

Presbyterian Ministers' Association

The Presbyterian Ministers' Association of St. John and environs held their first autumn meeting on Monday last in St. Andrew's Church. In addition to the members of the association, there were present Rev. James Colquhoun of Glasgow, N. B., and Rev. W. T. Wilkins of Trenton, Ont., both of whom were cordially welcomed to the meeting. Officers elected for the ensuing year as follows: Pres. Rev. Gordon Dickie; Rev. J. A. MacKellan, Secy-Treas.; Rev. W. T. Wilkins, Wm. W. Malcolm and J. A. MacKellan. Considerable time was given to the study of the "Ten Days' Mission" to be conducted this Fall, beginning on Sabbath, Oct. 18, under the direction of Rev. W. T. Herdridge, D. D., Moderator of the General Assembly. Rev. G. Dickie, J. A. MacKellan and J. H. MacVicar were appointed a committee on arrangements in connection with the services. An interesting and profitable hour followed when Rev. C. A. Myers of Toronto gave an address and held a conference on the question of the Church and the Young People.
