

MEETING OF RATEPAYERS HAMPTON CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Satisfactory Report from Trustees — Herbert Ryder
Succeeds Geo. E. Stratton
who has Retired from Board

Hampton, July 10.—The annual meeting of the ratepayers of Consolidated School District No. 2, parishes of Hampton and Norton, was held this forenoon in the assembly hall of the school building, opening at ten o'clock. The meeting was called to order by J. W. Smith, chairman of the board of trustees. George H. Barnes was elected chairman and P. W. F. Brewster secretary of the meeting.

The trustees' report was read, dealing with the educational and financial condition of the district and presenting the estimates for the ensuing year. The report shows that the work of the district for the past year has been particularly successful; one very interesting paragraph states that while the number in Grade XI was larger than for any previous year in the history of the district, all had remained until the end of the year, and every one who remained completed the course and received his or her graduation certificate.

There will be one change in the teaching staff. Mr. H. C. Lawrence, who has had charge of Grades VII and VIII, has resigned, having accepted the position of principal of the Consolidated School at Kingston, and Miss Wetmore, a first class teacher, and a sister of Principal Wetmore, has been added to the staff. The financial report shows that owing to the need of an unusual amount of repairs to pipes, etc., during the year, and to the high cost of fuel, the expenditure has been larger than usual—the total disbursements amounting to $6,428.63, and using up all available funds. It is said that for the ensuing year a still larger amount must be provided as quite extensive repairs are needed on the pumping system, and the insurance premiums for a three years' term will fall due during the year. The report recommends a vote of $5,400.00, which was adopted and the amount voted by the meeting. In this connection it is worth while to note that each year the sum of $500.00 is added to a sinking fund for the liquidation of the bonded indebtedness of the district, and that already this sinking fund amounts to over $6,500.00, deposited in the bank of Nova Scotia.

The report of the auditor, F. M. Sprout, certified to the accuracy of the books and accounts. Mr. Sprout was re-elected auditor.

Mr. George E. Stratton of the "Herald" section of the district was the retiring trustee. Mr. Stratton has held office for a long time and declined re-nomination, but nominated Mr. Herbert Ryder, of the same section. Mr. Millage Lawrence was also nominated and a ballot was taken. Mr. Ryder was declared elected and took the declaration of office.

The meeting adjourned shortly after noon.

CURIOUS NAMES FOR VARIOUS EDITIONS OF THE BIBLE

Down through the centuries the human hands that set the types of the Bible often made human errors. Nor did the human eyes that read the proofs detect them. In this way did certain curious mistakes creep in that have to this day become the earmarks of distinction. And then again some quaint phrase or word, wrought in the idiom of the translator, struck the fancy of the learned or the vulgar, who added upon it a sort of titulus. For instance, these:

THE BREECHES BIBLE, published in 1560, so-called because in Genesis, III, 7, it read: "They sewed fig-leaves together and made themselves breeches" instead of "aprons."

THE BUG BIBLE, published in 1551, so-called because in Psalm XCI, 4, it read: "So that thou shalt not need to be afraid for any bugs by night," meaning "terrors."

THE HE BIBLE, published in 1611, so-called because in Ruth, III, 15, it read "he" instead of "she."

THE PRINTERS' BIBLE, published in 1702, so-called because in Psalm CXIX, 161, it read: "Printers have persecuted me without a cause"—instead of "princes."

THE ROSIN BIBLE, published in 1693, so-called because in Jeremiah VIII, 22, it read: "Is there no rosin in Gilead?" instead of "balm in Gilead."

THE WICKED BIBLE, published in 1631, so-called because the printer left out the word "not" in the seventh commandment.

The famous Big Print Red Letter Edition, now being distributed by this paper, is one of the best editions ever published, without errors, and contains many valuable features that render it unique among Bibles. The coupon in today's issue, elsewhere, describes terms to our readers.

THE POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday, a Board of Health case was adjourned for a week as the defendants were not present.

Jacob Colwell was fined $10 for not stopping his team at the corner of Mill and Main streets when ordered to do so by the police.

Two drunks were fined $5 each.

THOUGHT

(Copyright pending), written June 1916, St. John, N. B.

Before this awful strife, broke forth to slay and maim. Possession, War, was born in some man's varied thought.

Then acted on by many, with the one, Now see, the world-wide desolation wrought.

The suffering of the innocent, with those Who planned the deed, forgetting God's life lease.

He called His Son, the "Saviour of the World," The "Wonderful Counsellor," and the "Prince of Peace."

The "Prince of Peace," 's He the "Prince of War?" Does Scripture really contradict itself today?

Nay, rather, place the blame where it belongs. That sin is rampant, and so war holdeth sway.

Can strife be stopped by sword and shell and gun? Though fierceest foe be beaten to the dust,

A soldier's child will grow to soldier man, Until that time, lo, swords in scabbards rust.

Then once again, swords, shall and steel will flash. When father springs to life a rain in child.

Then Bethlehem's message will be once more forgot. The "Prince of Peace" will view again, sin, rampant, wild.

Hereditary law, will just mean this—aye, note— A soldier father—the nation mourns his son.

Had Kitchener's father been a business man, What fighting would our mourned hero done?

It's not the silent thought, that does the harm, It's active thought, that meaneth seal, or woe.

And breathe sorrow on the just and good. Because man wills, and plans, to have it so.

"Christ in you" alone, will stop this awful war. "Peace on earth," yea, still His message is the same.

While He permits the carnage and the strife, Upon man's sin and greed, now rests the blame.

What is taken, by power of force, alone is held. So long as victor's power of force is holding sway,

But buried deep within the beaten hearts and lives, Is the seed, that's dormant only, till the day

Of opportunity swings round again, with time. And lo! the soldier boy to manhood now has grown.

Then thought put into action will spring once more to life. In spite of former orphan's tears, and widows' moan.

Is this not true? Go search the Scripture well. Is history not true? let page and page of history eloquently speak

The seeds of war bring forth the fruit of hate. Is it the fruit of love, or hate, we seek?

Answer the question before it is too late. No prayers, or vain regrets, bring back our soldier dead.

'Tis thought, put into action, caused deadly war. 'Tis thought, put into action, bringeth peace instead.

On "No Man's Land" fight on, fight on, you must. Till thoughts of peace at home take action and say—stay,

And friend and foe alike, from depth of soul, Must pray—God speed the coming of this day.

Men leave their fleshly temples, battered and maimed, to rot. Under God's blue canopy, stiff and rigid—side by side;

Carry they their hatred and their murder lust. On, on with them into the "Great Divide?"

There to continue, minus their fleshly house. Though Heaven's gate, we know, is opened wide.

Yet 'tis true, while life they freely gave for Country's sake. That hatred there will keep them both outside.

And yet, 'tis said, men cannot fight and kill. Without there's hatred in the heart of each;

When will men learn the value of a soul? The lesson that the "Saviour" died to teach.

When will men learn that self goes on with them. That "Christ within" is the only passport there.

That flesh is sought, compared to life of soul. And there's a power greater than sword, 'tis prayer.

But never, never, does God roll away earth's stones. That men can move with their own hands.

But the world today forgets, and would forget. Love is the fulfilling of our Lord's commands.

Some say this war will be indeed the last. Heretofore law firmly denies this claim.

Unless the time is drawing very near. When "Christ" Himself shall come on earth to reign.

When we place life's value where the "Master" did. Upon the souls of men, not worldly greed and gain;

Though war may kill millions of foes and friends. Do not the children of their soldier fathers still remain?

But if we place the value on the soul. With the uncertainty of where each soul will be.

Both friend and foe, alike, would stay their hand. If they would but think of God's eternity.

The aons for the ones who freely give their lives. For Country's flag, and country's name.

But the "whole world" the "Saviour" said the words— Is thought compared to soul life, so 'tis true.

BIGGEST FISH CATCH EVER LANDED AT AMERICAN PORT

Trawler Easthampton Arrives in Gloucester, Mass., with Catch of 400,000 lbs. Taken off Sambro Bank, N. S.

Gloucester, Mass., July 11.—The largest single catch of fish ever landed at a port in this country was brought here today by the trawler Easthampton, according to port officials, after comparison with available records. The trawler got 400,000 pounds off Sambro Bank, near Halifax, N. S., in less than two weeks.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

The Board of Health officials had before the police magistrate yesterday morning a case which bids fair to prove of interest because of legal issues involved. The charge was laid against the firm of Taylor & Sweeney, agents for the property in Bridge street, complained of by the health officials. The defendants did not appear and the case stands for hearing on Tuesday next. J. Roy Campbell, K. C., counsel for the board, read the law involving the liability of owner, agent or other persons.
