

The foregoing epitome of their sayings, and of the doings of their respective Grand Lodges, with an occasional expression of approval or dissent, and sometimes a long-winded dissertation upon what some may regard as a pet hobby or personal view, in the hope that pleasure and profit may be the result thereof, is herewith respectfully submitted for the perusal of reading Brethren, by

E. T. D. Chambers

Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

QUEBEC, January, 1890.

Antiquity
Albion I
Anderson
Address
Acacia L
Annual C
Ascot Loc
Ashlar Lo
Argyle Lo
Argenteuil

Browne L
Butler T. 1
Bedford Di
Brown T. 1
Brown T. 1
Benevolenc
Benevolenc

Committee o
Chateaugay
Channell, F.
Credentials f
Committee o
Committee o
Committee or Committee o
Committee or Committee or Committee on
Coeurs Unis L
Corinthian Lo