

CLASS IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.

Electrical engineering is not taught as a separate subject except to those men who are taking a course for a degree. The men in the class in the illustration are men taking part time courses in school and will finish their training in some industrial establishment. They are being taught the basic principles in the class room. These men will become sub-section tenders, meter testers, house wire men, etc.

Face page 3.

For the Canadian war activities in 1917, in July, 1917, in this volume of the disa distinct co

There between tr basic sound therefore f obtained fr success. N plan when when requ of the wor of continu of men seek

An ind ing since March, 191 obtained fr

When him in July men receive rooms which of 1917, the and 2,199 i to the prese receiving re are attendi cents are pr The figures enlisted prio severe inter made by the

Quite ri of results w energy could tions of those available wi might have t increase in industrial un there would of the follow mal strain sa

In the a the work sinc