KINGSTON NEWS

KINGSTON, N. S., Nov. 18.—There was a large crowd at the recital given by Mr. John Hurlley in the Baptist Church on Nov. 12th. Mr. Hurlley was assisted by the Misses Hurlley and Nelson. The Kingston Orchestra rendered excellent music during the evening's program.

Mrs. Myra Smith is spending several days in Kentville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knowles of Halifax, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stevens.

Miss Greta Morse is visiting friends in Aylesford and Kentville.

A number from here attended the opening of the new United Church in Middleton on last Sunday.

Mrs. Gladys Tupper spent several days last week with friends in Hantsport.

A very successful Song Service was given in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening. Outside talent included Miss Alice Fair, of Aylesford; Mr. Hart, Mrs. Baker of Lunenburg, and Miss M. White of Somersport, were among the soloists.

At the evening session the soloists were Mrs. Baker and Mr. Hart, and the local choir, who sang two anthems the solo parts in which were taken by Mrs. H. W. Kirkpatrick and S. Grimm. Clyde Jacques, violinist, and J. Reagh, cornetist, assisted in the hymns.

Dr. Kent was again heard and in an able, interesting manner outlined the ideal of manhood, as it was in Jewish Old Testament times and followed the changing tide down to the present period.

The reopening and re-dedicating of the United Church (Methodist and Presbyterian) took place here on Sunday last, Nov. 16, before a congregation that filled the church during the entire services, held during the day.

The church has been thoroughly remodelled, redecorated and re-seated with new pulpits and furnishings, new lighting effects and a new up-to-date heating system of low pressure steam and is now complete in every particular, with its ladies' parlor, kitchen, cloak rooms and lavatory. The architect, L. R. Fair, and the building committee, viz: G. H. Vroom, G. W. Crowe, G. N. Reagh and F. B. Armour are being congratulated on the manner in which the designing and work has been brought to completion.

The programme for the day consisted of three services. The speaker at the morning and evening services was Rev. Dr. Kent, of Pine Hill College.

The music was furnished by the choir, and quartette of the United Church, assisted by soloists from other towns, the choir appearing in their gowns for the first time.

At the morning service, past before the preaching service, two children were presented for baptism—John Sponglie Reagh, and Gordon Tremaine Dodge. The rite was performed by the pastor Rev. J. G. Hockin.

The soloist of the morning service was Mr. Hart, of Halifax.

North Williamston, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Fannie Moore is spending the winter with her daughters in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bezanon have gone to Digby for the winter.

Mrs. C. Alexander and daughter, Bernice, of Wolfville, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunn of the U. S. are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dunn.

Miss E. Chute, of Bear River, is visiting her friend, Miss M. Dunn.

Miss E. Naugier of Inglisville spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dunn.

CARD OF THANKS—The Officers & Congregation of The United Church desire to express publicly their sincere thanks to F. B. Armour, Esq., for generously allowing them the use of the Armada Theatre for Sunday School and Evening Service while the church was undergoing repairs.

Rev. J. G. Hockin, Pastor. S. H. Morrison, Clerk of Sess.

Love makes the cottage a palace of gold.

Nature alone knows what she wants.

The deed is everything; the fame is nothing.

An open brow indicates an open heart.

An educated people is easily governed.

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to express our deep gratitude to the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness, and tokens of sympathy shown, during our recent and bereavement. For the friendly visits and personal messages received during the sickness and death of our loved one. For the music so beautifully rendered, and the floral tributes.

MRS. SUSAN WATSON, son and daughters Joseph Watson.
