

either by pardon or expiration of sentence, it shall be the duty of the Warden to furnish such convict with the necessary clothing, ordered by the Inspectors, and with such sum of money not exceeding five pounds as the said Warden may deem proper and necessary.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That no prisoner shall be discharged by the natural expiration of the term to which he or she was sentenced during the months of November, December, January, February or March, and all prisoners whose sentences expire during these months, shall be kept in the Penitentiary under the same discipline and control as if their sentences were still unexpired, until the first day of April following the said expiration of their formal sentence. And on the said first day of April a list shall be made of all the prisoners whose sentences expired during the five preceding months according to the date when their sentences expired, and according to such order, they shall be discharged one convict on the 1st April and one on every day thereafter until the whole have been so discharged.

Not to be discharged in winter months.

XLV. And be it enacted, That the female prisoners shall be kept totally distinct and secluded from the males, and shall be under the charge of the Matron and Assistant Matron subject however to all the provisions of this Act, and the rules and regulations of the Prison so far as applicable to them.

Females to be kept separate.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That the Inspectors of the Penitentiary may in their discretion prepare a separate system of discipline and employment for the military convicts, and on submitting the same for the sanction of the Governor General in Council, and receiving such sanction they may put such system in operation as far as regards military Prisoners only, notwithstanding the provisions of this Act.

Inspectors may prepare separate system for military convicts.