

Session, or inconsistent with the provisions of such Act or of this Act, shall continue to be in force and shall apply to and be observed in and by the Court hereby established, in the same manner as they would have applied to and been observed in and by the said Provincial Court of Appeals, if neither the said Act nor this Act had been passed.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the said Court, shall and may (and it shall be the duty of the Court so to do within one year from the time when this Act, shall come fully into effect,) make and establish a Tariff of Fees for the officers of the said Court and the Counsel, Advocates and Attornies practising therein, and also such Rules of Practice as shall be requisite for regulating the due conduct of the causes, matters and business before the said Court or the Judges thereof or any of them, and in Term or out of Term, and all process and proceedings therein or thereunto relating; which Tariff of Fees and Rules of Practice the said Court shall have full power and authority to repeal, alter and amend from time to time: Provided always, that no such Rule of Practice shall be contrary to or inconsistent with this Act, or any other Act or Law in force in Lower Canada, otherwise the same shall be null and void: And provided also, that until such Tariff of Fees and Rules of practice shall be made and duly established by the said Court, the Tariff of Fees and Rules of Practice in force immediately before the coming of this Act into full effect, with regard to the "Court of Appeals for Lower Canada," established by the Act hereinbefore cited and repealed, shall continue to be in force and shall apply to the Court hereby established and the proceedings therein, subject to such amendments and alterations as shall be from time to time made therein by the said Court.

The Court to make a Tariff of Fees and Rules of practice within one year; and may repeal or alter them.

Provido.

What Tariff and Rules shall apply until others are so made.
