DIRECTION—SIDNEY LUMET

The incredible, but true story of the cop who defied the system! The bearded Greenwich Village loner, eleven year veteran of the force, opera lover, ladies man, crack shot, karate expert, undercover nark, who put it all on the line every day. Scorned by his fellow officers, feared by the police brass and City Hall officials, he delivered the greatest single blow to corruption in the history of the New York Police department and nearly lost his life.
