COMMUNITY

SALE — Volunteers from Red Cross branches throughout Nova Scotia have concentrated their talents towards the creation of special items for the Red Cross Craft Sale. Hundreds of crafts, including afghans, infant wear, sweaters, and some very select quilts, will be sold. The first sale will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 27 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Red Cross Centre, 1940 Gottingen St. Another sale will be held at Bayer's Road Mall on Thursday, Oct. 29, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. A special invitation is extended to all to help Red Cross help.

ONGOING EVENTS

Rita McKeough's installation Blind Spot can be viewed at the Eye Level Gallery through to October 24th. McKeough's installation deals with the issue of domestic violence. Eye Level Gallery, 2182 Gottingen Street.

Two Decades of Video Art, historical and contemporary art tapes produced by staff, faculty and alumni of the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design, runs through to October 31st at the Centre for Art Tapes, 2156 Brunswick Street.

The Exhibition Love vs. Technology, Valerie LeBlanc's multimedia presentation based on the dichotomy of personal versus public life, runs through to October 24th at the Centre for Art Tapes, 2156 Brunswick Street.

VOLUNTEERS

Veith House is in need of volunteers to work on the Reception Desk. Days and hours are flexible, with both morning and evening shifts available. This is an excellent opportunity to learn or enhance clerical, telephone answering, organizational and people skills. For more information, contact the Veith House Volunteer Coordinator at 453-4320. Come and be a part of the exciting Veith House network.
