

Q- 44. And even though that thought occurred to you you said, 'oh, well, it is much more important for me to finish paying for my car than it is for me to take my part in defending the country'. Is that your attitude?

A- 44. No sir, not in a way.

Q- 45. What was your attitude of mind?

A- 45. I figured that if I could finish paying for the car I would have a little something to start with when the war was over.

Q- 46. What kind of a car was it?

A- 46. A Ford.

Q- 47. Sedan or coupe?

A- 47. Club coupe.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: May I put a thought in his mind?

BY THE PRESIDENT: I asked you if you wanted to re-examine the accused after Major Menzies was through and you said that you didn't wish to ask any questions.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Well, sir, he missed giving part of his statement which he gave to me; he has not brought that out.

ACCUSED QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT (Cont'd)

Q- 48. Is there anything further you wish to say to the Court that has not been brought out so far?

A- 48. I don't know if there is or not - I am a little confused and I don't really know exactly what to say.

Q- 49. What does your father do?
