

Peter Campbell MacGregor, B.A., LL.D.

BORN in Glasgow, Scotland, 6th December, 1842; Died at Ottawa, Canada, 2nd April, 1916; Came with parents to Balderson, August, 1843; Early education, Perth Grammar School. At age of eighteen Principal of Bathurst and South Sherbrooke union school; Matriculated from Kingston Grammar School into Queen's University, 1863, standing first winning Watkin's Scholarship; Won Scholarships in every college year and several prizes. Graduated B.A. 1866, first in Classics, Philosophy and English, and second in Mathematics. Principal Bath High School 1866; Head Master Morrisburg High School 1870; Principal High School Niagara-on-the-Lake 1873. Almost continuously Principal Almonte High School, 1874 to 1900, which, under Dr. MacGregor, ranked among the foremost schools of the Province. Registrar of Deeds, North Lanark, 1900 to 1915. A Trustee and LL.D. of Queen's University. Associated with many charitable and fraternal societies. Married Christmas Day, 1879, to Kate Ferguson McNab, who predeceased him. Two daughters, Miss Annie K., of Haileybury High School, and Miss Grace C., Mines Department, Ottawa.

A great Scottish teacher whose heart was in the advancement of his pupils. He could truly say with Horace, "Exegi monumentum aere perennius."