

six daughters and four sons. Three of the daughters died in their girlhood, Edith the eldest dying in England. While her remains were deposited at Rushock in England, her heart was sacredly preserved and brought with them to Canada and deposited in St. James' cemetery here. The other daughters were Sarah, Mrs. Drinkwater, previously mentioned; Agnes, the late Mrs. Edmund H. Cole of Toronto and the late Mrs. Dr. Gilmore of Orillia, who has left us fortunately a valuable and only sketch of the old Stone Barracks. The sons were Skeeler, Preston, Richard and Edgar, the latter with his sister, Mrs. Gilmore, having died recently. The late Edgar Hallen was very active in church work often holding the office of Church Warden and frequently assisting with his father as lay reader and officiating at burials at distant points, especially at Victoria Hill (Waverley) and the Junction School House. At his death he presented through Miss Radenhurst a silver pocket communion service, once the property of his father, to the Rev. N. A. F. Bourne, rector of St. James' Church, as the proper custodian of the memento. Rev. Geo. Hallen passed to his reward, dying in Toronto, Sept. 3rd, 1882, aged 89 years, his wife having predeceased him on the 30th Jan., 1864, in her 70th year. Their remains rest side by side in St. James' cemetery, with those of their children. The following is a translation of a bronze tablet in abbreviated Latin, which he prepared with the exception of the last paragraph recording his death. It was later erected in the chancel of St. James' Church, and I am indebted to the courtesy of the Rev. N. A. F. Bourne, the present rector, for the following translation :—
