CHAPTER III.

OF DEGREES.

1. The curriculum or course of attendance on the Literary and Philosophical classes for Students who intend to compete for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, shall be three Sessions attendance. The course of study shall be as follows:—

First Year.—Junior Latin—Junior Greek—Junior Mathematics.

Second Year.—Senior Latin—Senior Greek—Senior Mathematics—Natural Philosophy.

Third Year.—Third Greek—Natural Philosophy—Moral Philosophy—Logic and Rhetoric—and with Third Latin or Third Mathematics, as may be determined in each case by the Senatus.

Students having it in view to study for the Ministry, whose circumstances do not permit them to attend during a seven months' Session, and whose case shall have been specially certified and recommended by the Presbytery within whose bounds they reside, may enter on or before the first Wednesday of November, and their course shall be completed in four Sessions of six months each.

2. The time for the examination of candidates for Degrees shall be fixed by the Senatus, and public intimation thereof given in the several classes; and all candidates shall, within ten days after such intimation, signify their intention to come forward, either to their respective Professors, or to the Secretary of the Senate.

3. The subjects and manner of examination shall be determined by the Senate. The examination shall take place in presence of the Senate, and shall consist partly of written questions and translations, and partly of viva voce examination. The subjects of examination for Degrees for each Session shall be appointed by the Senatus and entered on the Minutes of the Board of Trustees.

4. If any of the candidates distinguish themselves by an uncommon degree of proficiency either in Classical or Mathematical studies, or
