After the distribution of prizes, His Lordship the Bishop briefly addressed the children. He was pleased with their conduct and appearance, and said, in reference to the sons, which they had just rendered, that it was proper at the present time to sing that song—in fact, he was about to ask them to pray for His Mejesty, that God might soon restore his health. At this time when we are praying for Our Holy Father the Pope who is the head of the Church, it is likewise well to pray forthe king who is the head of the Government. Pray that he might be spared to rule the country and that we might enjoy good laws and have the blessing of a Catholic education. He counseled the choor of the school. Those who have got the presence of the school. Those who have done before them did well and reflected dot like wise. He advised the children to be helpful while at home during vacation to father and mother. He hopped they would have a pleasant holiday and return to school with renewed hes ith and strength; after which he bestowed his blersing.

LORETTO ACADEMY NIAGARA FALLS.

Within sight and sound of the mighty cata ract and on the afternoon of Thursday—an ideal June day—picturerque oid Loretto Convent presented a scene that was beautiful in the extreme and one that will long remain fresh and green in the memory of those fortunate enough to be present, as well as the young ladies who so creditably furnished the enter tainment for the occasion. It was closing day and the pupils were all animation, from the little tota right up to the young ladies who are radiant in the blush and beauty of budding womanhood. It was a day filled with joys and sorrows to those who are leaving the portials of their Alma Mater for the last time as pupils to now assume the more serious duties which life's battle precents to us all.

It was joyful, because the goal for which they had striven so hard—an education, well-rounded and which is absolutely essential to the women of to-day—had been reached with honors.

The sorrowful side which presented itself was the fact that that sweetly sad word 'good bye' was to be spoken to their companions in study and the ladies who had striven so conscientiously to thus fit them for whatever the future might have in store.

The closing exercises were conducted in the spacious and well-appointed assembly room before a goodly company of reverend gentlemen, relatives and friends of the graduating class.

The ladies of that class who thus bid farewell to school days—the happiest of their lives —with all the pleasant associations connected therewith, are as follows:

Miss Gertrude Madden, Lockport N. Y.
Miss Bernice Golden, Bangor, Me.
Miss Catherine Hughes, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Miss Edythe Quim. Straght, Pa.
Miss Irene Ducey, New York City.
Miss Josephine Foster of this town.
The list of prizes won by the many pupils in attendance is a long one and we regret our inability to publish the same owing to the large amount of space which is taken up in the publication of the financial statements of our two moneyed institutions.
But crowded and all as we are we cannot refrain from giving a more or less detailed account of the programme.

Music, and good music, both instrumental and vocal was to be expected at such a gathering and the expectation was realized to a dekree.

THE BISH.P AT STONEY POINT PARISH.

On the 24th of June, the Feast of St. John the Baptist, the Bishop of London visited the parish of Stoney Point and gave the sacrament of confirmation to a large class. The Bishop congratulated the pastor, Father St. Oyr, and his people, and thanked them for having established three Separate schools in the parish since his last visit two years ago. The Bishop urged both priest and people to start a fund for the building of a new church, as the parish is an important one and should have a larger and better church than the present one, which was built nearly forty jears ago by the Venerable Archdeacon Andrieux now parish priest of Belle River.

Father Bechard preached a spropriste sermon at the early Mass to the children preparing for first Communion. At the last Mass Father Boubat officiated and Father Beaudain preached the sermon.

FATHER M'MENAMIN'S LECTURE.

The lecture given by Father McMenamin of Clinton in the Catholic church here on Tuesday evening, was a rare treat. The revgentleman is perfectly at home on the lecture platform, and his subject. The Two Standards was very ably handled. The attendance was not as large as it should have been, but should Father McMenamin come to Zurich again he will be sure of a much larger audience. The two standards were represented by him as Lucifer and hell on the one hand, and Christ and salvation on the other, and he gave some very convincing and strong arguments why we should always be prepared for death and guard against the temptations of sin. The whole lecture was replete with vivid mindpictures, of the joys of eternal bliss and the horrors of eternal damnation.—Zurich Herald, June 27.

A MEMORIAL WINDOW.

A MEMORIAL WINDOW.

The children of the late John Bianchfield, sr., of Eramesa have done a filial honor to their deceased father by placing a memorial window in St. Peter's church, Oustle. The window is an artistic place of work. In the centre stands a full-sized tikeness of the "Good Shepherd" with staff in one hand and the other in the act of knocking at the door, representing his words. "Behold I stand at the door and knock." At the base the words, "In memory of the late John Blanchfield, by his children," are inscribed. The window is a beautiful ornament to the church, a gife from worthy children to a noble father, who in life was beloved and respected by all who knew hlm,—Gelpin Heraid, June 19.

Rev. Father Feeney thanked the donors in his own name and in behalf of the congresation for the beautiful gife. The design was drawn and executed by Mr. St. George of London.

BURKE-DRENNAN.

On Wednesday morning St. John's church was the scene of one of the most beautiful weddings that has ever been held in Perth. when Mr. John E. Burke, of Chicago, one of the most successful contractors in the United States, was united to Miss Josephine Drennan, eldest daughter of Mr. Michael Drennan, eldest description of the most popular young ladies in the town. Promptly at 8:39 the grand notes of Mondels sohn's Weading March pealed forth from the organ, played by Sis er Mary Amabie, and the bride was attended by her two sisters, Misses Hattle and Florence Drennan, while with the groom was Mr. Frank J. MISS ANNA A. WELLS.

Miss Anna A. Wells.

Miss Anna A. Weils died at the residence of her brother-in law. Dr. A. H. Cote. of Port Huron at 10:30 a m., Sunday, June 15th, and was buried from Lucan on the following Tuesday. The high esseem paid to this noble type of Christian womanhood, was evidenced by the large number of friends, who left their homes in Stratford to be present at the last rites of Hely Church over the body. In the words of one of the local papers, "She was endeared to all by the sweetness and unselfishness of her disposition and by her ever readiness to lend her time aad talents to every worthy object." She had been president of the Young Ladles' Sodslity of St. Jeseph's church for many years and secretary of the Humane Society, and she took a much valued interest in local literary circles, to all of which societies her demise will be a loss not soon repaired. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Then how truly blessed is she of whom we write, for with full consciousness she received her Lord in holy Communion just fifteen minutes before He became her Judge. And we who have known of her exemplary life from early childhood feel sure that the Judge was also the most loving of friends " wiping away all tears from her eyes." To her dear mother, sisters, brother and friends we would address the words of one of our sweetest Catholic writters:

"Be strong to bear, O Heart, Nothing is vain;

"Be strong to bear, O Heart, Nothing is vain: Strive not—for life is care And God sends pain Heaven is above and there, Best will remain."

The late Mrs. Sunstrum, as has been said, was an active worker in charitable circles for many years, and at the time of her death was eccretary of the auxiliary of St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum, an indefatigable worker in the Ladies' Sewing Society for the poor, and a memberiof the Laving Rosary Sodality.

Mrs. Sunstrum had been twice married, her drest husband being the late James Finn, for many years one of Ottawa's most prominent merchants, and later to Mr. John Sunstrum, under man.

The funeral which was held on Sunday, the 22nd inst., was one of the largest from St. Joseph's for some years.

The libera was chanted by the pastor of St. Joseph's, Rev. Father Murphy, assisted by Fathers T. Murphy and McGirty. The choir, under the direction of Mr. E. Tasse, assisted at the service, and a sole by Mr. E. Bellean was beautifully and symmsthetically rendered After the service of interment, Notre Dame cemetery, where the last sad rices were performed by Father Murphy, and the body placed beside her deceased husband and two children. The orphans of St. Patrick's asylum attended the service in a body. Ottawa's most prominent citizens, rich and poor, Protestant and Catholic, attended the obsequies, to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of an exemplary Christian lady.

On Monday June 23rd, a grand Requiem Mass was sung at St. Joseph's, the celebrant being the Rev. Father Murphy, assisted by deacon and subdeacon. The sacred edifice was heavily draped. Prof. Buels, leader of St. Patrick's choir, kindly assisted, and corributed a solo, which was feelingly and tenderly rendered.

The late Mrs. Sunstrum was a native of Ottawa, and had lived in the one locality all her life. She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and two daughters the Misses Eva and Lillian Finn, an aged father and mother, two brothers, James of Worchester, Mass, and Samuel of Ottawa.

May she rest in peace!

MISS M. P. MORRISSEY, STREETSVILLE, ONT. "There is a Reaper, whose name is Death And with his sickle keen Harraps the bearded grain at a breath And the flowers that grow between."

Among the many of earth's flowers chosen for Paradise since the dawning of June was Margaret Philomena Morrissey, youngest daughter of Mrs. Morrissey, of Streetsville, who submissively bowed to the Master's call searly on Wednesday, June 18th, and fortified by the last rites of the Chuuch, this deserving soul bade farewell to those to whom earth had dearly bound her.

She had been a sufferer for eleven years—sometimes gaining strength to ensure a life of many years, sometimes being so low that Death seemed close at hand.

The funeral which took place to the Catholic church, Streetsville, was largely attended. Here Masses were celebrated by Rev. P. Coyle and Rev. Fr. Gibbon, after which Rev. P. Coyle preached a short but impressive sermon on the importance of the meditation on and preparation for death.

The funeral procession then re-formed and the body was borne to the Fifth Line cemetery, where all that was mortal of poor Maggie was laid to rest beside the remains of her father.

To mourn her loss she leaves a widowed mother, one brother in South Bend. Indiana, and five sisters—Johanna, Annie and Mrs. T. Flanagen of Streetsville; Mrs. Dineen of Peterborough and Mrs. Dineen of Havelock, all of whom have the deepest sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

May her soul rest in peace:

Successful Garden Party.

The garden party held on the school grounds last Moneay night under the auspices of the Cathode church, was a great success, notwith standing the coolness of the evening. The grounds were very prettily under developing the grounds were very prettily under developing the process of the evening. The grounds were very prettily under developing the process of the evening, who may be as conveniently arranged for the splendid programme provided. Mr. Leitch of London, was the popular star of the evening, who may be popular star of the evening, who may be popular star of the evening, who may be provided in his own infinitiable style. During the evening the Alvinston band enlivened the proceedings as several solections, and the excellent work of this organization was an agreeable surprise to all. The drawing contest was a pleasing feature of the evening, and right here we want to congratuate our Catholie friends on the fairness and able manner in which there we want to congratuate our Catholie friends on the fairness and able manner in which contest was conducted. Five men were chosen by the gathering to perform the task and Master Harry Bindher ducky ones were reached. Mrs. C. Donovan won the lemenade set, James Burns held the teket which drew the clock, and Miss Madge Lindsay, of Inwood, was the fortunate individual to win the cruet. After the contest, Rev. D J. Ezan, addressed a few well chosen remarks to the gathering, expressive of his gratitude for the patronage of the evening. This concluded the evening's programme, and the gathering dispersed after singing the National Anthem.—Alvinston Free Press, June 25.

Miss Katle Moore of London presided at the piano. Miss L. Howe was the violinist. Miss Reynolds and Miss Nellie Moore rendered Successful Garden Party.

The magnificent painting of His Holiness, Pope Leo XIII., is the work of one of New York's most celebrated artists, J. A. Mohlte, who, in painting this picture, has had the advantage of the constant criticisms and advice of the highest disnitaries of the Catholic Church in America, who have devoted unusual time in going over the details of this painting with the artist, so that the finished work would be as near perfect as anything that has been brought out. Those who have been favored by His Holiness with an audience exclaim over the remarkable likeness in this painting. 'I. is, indeed, a portrait absolutely true to life.'

So faithful a likeness and so magnificent a work of art as the present picture, it is, therefore, of incalcuable value to everyone. Size 22x27. Sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents.
