WEXFORD.

The Wexford Peopleannounces that at the late quarter sessions held at Enniscorthy and New Ross there were upwards of eighty ejectments for non-payment of rent. "The fact," says our contemporary, "is deplorably significant. It does not imply that eighty farmers by extravagance or indolence, or both, have wasted their substance or squandred their means. It means that, owing to a variety of well-known causes, which have affected not one or two, or eighty, but the farmers of the whole country generally, and which con-tinue to affect them, these men have been rendered unable to meet their engage-ments. We cannot for a moment suppose ments. We cannot for a moment suppose that those eighty cases are in any way exceptional, or that their circumstances differ in any material respect from the circumstances of thousands of others in in the country. We cannot for a moment suppose that eighty solvent farmers are ready to take the place of those who have been dispossessed, and to pay promptly the half-year's rent, or the year's rent when it becomes due. Utterly out of the range of possibility would be any such suprange of possibility would be any such sup-position, and much more likely is it that eighty others are ready to follow in the track of the evicted." And this is the state of things that prevails in one of the so-called prosperous parts of the country.

AYER'S PILLS have been known for more than a quarter of a century, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for their virtues. They correct diseased action in the several assimilative organs of the body, and are so composed that obstruc-tions within their range can rarely with-stand or evade them. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every-body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that human skill. have baffled the best of While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they gripe much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the vital fountains of the blood, and strengthen the system by freeing from the elements of weakness.

Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these Pills may be taken with safety by anybody.
