KING STREET EAST, TORONTO

Scientific American

ESTABLISHED 1846.

The most popular weekly newspaper devoted to science, mechanics, engineering, discoveries in various departments of knowledge. Every number illustrated with splendid engravings. This publication furnished a most valuable encyclopedia of information which no person should be without. The popularity of the Scientific American is such that its circulation nearly equals that of all other papers of its class combined. Price $3 per year. Address: Rowell & Hutchison, 381 Broadway, N. Y. City. Send by all newspapers, N. Y. City. Have Patents. Also had "Patent" notice before the Patent Office and have prepared more than one in the United States and published them for the United States Patent Office. Inventors, and all other persons, securing to their rights their rights in the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany and other foreign countries, prepared at short notice and on reasonable terms. Information as to obtaining patents cheerfully given without charge. Hand-books of 1st rank in each free. Patents obtained through Rowell & Co. are noted in the Scientific American free. The advantage of an ad notice is well understood by all persons who wish to dispose of their patents.

Address: MUNN & CO., Office: SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, 381 Broadway, New York.
