The only publication published on any of the Canadian liners is that issued once each trip on the Empress of Ireland by Sidney Watson, one or the stewards. It is a handsome little tour-page attair entitled, "The Empress of Ireland Gazette." It contains all the news of each day on board the des bits or poetry and criticisms. The cover is done in gilt and looks very pretty. The publication is doubtless highly prized by the passengers as a souvenir of the trip. Mr. Watson edited the Illustrated Journal on the Lucania for five years.

RIVERS-BAKER.

A nuptial event of interest to many took place at Randolph last evening, when George B. Rivers of North End was united to Miss Catherine Baker, daughter of B. Frank Baker. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by Rev. Frank E. Bishop of Fairville Baptist church. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white point d'esprit over white silk. She was given away by her father. Among the numerous handsome wedding gifts with which the many friends of the young people are marking the happy event are a set of china and a pair of silver sugar tongs school, in recognition of the bride's connection with the Sunday school as teacher and with the church as organist. The groom's gift to the bride is a sunburst of pearls. The groom is connected with the McClary Company. Mr. and Mrs. Rivers will make their home at 31 Chesley street.
